Lonely Planet Budapest & Hungary Lonely Planet, Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages (500-1300) (2 vols) Florin Curta, 2019-07-08 Winner of the 2020 Verbruggen prize This book provides a comprehensive synthesis of scholarship on Eastern Europe in the Middle Ages The goal is to offer an overview of the current state of research and a basic route map for navigating an abundant historiography available in more than 10 different languages The literature published in English on the medieval history of Eastern Europe books chapters and articles represents a little more than 11 percent of the historiography The companion is therefore meant to provide an orientation into the existing literature that may not be available because of linguistic barriers and in addition an introductory bibliography in English Winner of the 2020 Verbruggen prize awarded annually by the De Re Militari society for the best book on medieval military history The awarding committee commented that the book has an enormous range and yet is exceptionally scholarly with a fine grasp of detail Its title points to a general history of eastern Europe but it is dominated by military episodes which make it of the highest value to anybody writing about war and warmaking in this very neglected area of Europe See inside the book Medieval East

Central Europe in a Comparative Perspective Gerhard Jaritz, Katalin Szende, 2016-05-12 Medieval East Central Europe in a Comparative Perspective draws together the new perspectives concerning the relevance of East Central Europe for current historiography by placing the region in various comparative contexts The chapters compare conditions within East Central Europe as well as between East Central Europe the rest of the continent and beyond Including 15 original chapters from an interdisciplinary team of contributors this collection begins by posing the question What is East Central Europe with three specialists offering different interpretations and presenting new conclusions The book is then grouped into five parts which examine political practice religion urban experience and art and literature The contributors question and explain the reasons for similarities and differences in governance and strategies for handling allies enemies or subjects in particular ways They point out themes and structures from town planning to religious orders that did not function according to political boundaries and for which the inclusion of East Central European territories was systemic The volume offers a new interpretation of medieval East Central Europe beyond its traditional limits in space and time and beyond the established conceptual schemes It will be essential reading for students and scholars of medieval East Central Europe Historical Monuments in Hungary

László Gerő, 1902 Church Archaeology in Transylvania (ca. 950 to ca. 1450) Daniela Marcu-Istrate, 2022-09-19 Transylvania has some of the most valuable monuments of medieval architecture in Europe The oldest church was built in the 10th century but most others came into being only after 1200 Later changes have considerably modified the appearance of still standing buildings Written sources are lacking for answers to questions about the identity of the builders and patrons Countering the idea that only standing structures can reflect the history of medieval churches in Transylvania this book uses archaeological sources in order to answer some of those questions and to bring to light the hidden past of many monuments

Vienna School of Art History is the first book in over seventy five years to study in depth and in context the practices of art history from 1847 the year the first teaching position in the discipline was created to 1918 the collapse of Austria Hungary It traces the emergence of art history as a discipline the establishment of norms of scholarly inquiry and the involvement of art historians in wider debates about the cultural and political identity of the monarchy The so called Vienna School plays the central role in the study but Rampley also examines the formation of art history elsewhere in Austria Hungary Located in the Habsburg imperial capital Vienna art historians frequently became entangled in debates that were of importance to art historians elsewhere in the Empire and Rampley pays particular attention to these areas of overlapping interest He also analyzes the methodological innovations for which the Vienna School was well known Rampley focuses most fully however on the larger political and ideological context of the practice of art history particularly the way in which art historical debates served as proxies for wider arguments over the political social and cultural life of the Habsburg Empire DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Hungary DK Travel,2018-03-20 Discover all that Hungary has to offer from luxurious spas and the historic Castle District in Budapest to the immense Hortobágy National Park With stunning photography illustrations and maps this easy to use guide will lead you straight to the best in Hungary including the Royal Palace of Gödöllő and Budapest's striking Memento Park Those spending time in picturesque Budapest can quickly uncover the best shops and museums exploring the area with the help of a detailed streetfinder map Carefully plotted itineraries showcase the rest of Hungary with insider tips and hotel and restaurant recommendations ensuring you experience the best that this fascinating country has to offer With hundreds of full color photographs hand drawn illustrations and custom maps that illuminate every page DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Hungary truly shows you this city as no one else can Hungary Adrian Phillips,Jo Scotchmer,2005 This thorough guide to Hungary shows there is much to explore beyond its popular capital Budapest A wide range of activities sightseeing and travel options are provided to aid independent travelers DK Eyewitness Travel Guide: Hungary Craig Turp,2013-10-10 Now available in PDF format DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Hungary is your indispensable guide to this beautiful country The fully updated guide includes unique cutaways floor plans and reconstructions of the must see sights plus street by street maps of cities and towns DK's insider travel tips and essential local information will help you discover the best of Hungary region by region from local festivals and markets to day trips around the countryside Detailed listings will guide you to hotels restaurants bars and shops for all budgets while practical information will help you to get around by train bus or car With hundreds of full color photographs hand drawn illustrations and custom maps that brighten every page DK Eyewitness Travel Guide Hungary truly shows you around this country as no one else can A Wayfarer in Hungary George A. Birmingham,1926 Periodization in the Art Historiographies of Central and Eastern Europe Shona Kallestrup,Magdalena Kunińska,Mihnea Alexandru Mihail,Anna Adashinskaya,Cosmin Minea,2022-06-07 This volume critically investigates how art historians writing about Central and Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries engaged with periodization At the heart of much of their writing lay the ideological project of nation building Hence discourses around periodization such as the mythicizing of certain periods the invention of historical continuity and the assertion of national specificity contributed strongly to identity construction Central to the book's approach is a transnational exploration of how the art histories of the region not only interacted with established Western periodizations but also resonated and entangled with each other In their efforts to develop more sympathetic frameworks that refined ignored or hybridized Western models they sought to overcome the centre periphery paradigm which equated distance from the centre with temporal belatedness and artistic backwardness The book thus demonstrates that the concept of periodization is far from neutral or strictly descriptive and that its use in art history needs to be reconsidered Bringing together a broad range of scholars from different European institutions the volume offers a unique new perspective on Central and Eastern European art historiography It will be of interest to scholars working in art history historiography and European studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
