Simone Gigliotti, 2017-10-02 Divided societies tormented pasts and unrepentant perpetrators Why are some countries more intent on vanquishing uncomfortable pasts than others How do public and often unsightly attempts at memorialisation both fail the victims and valorize their oppressors This book offers fresh and original perspectives on dictatorship fascism and victimization from the bloodiest decades in Europe's Australia's and Central America's colonial and modern history Chapters include analyses of Francoist memorials in Spain assessments of the El Mozote massacre in El Salvador the forgetting of frontier colonial violence in Romania's treatment of its Roma populations in the midst of Holocaust memorialisation in Bucharest's urban development and whether or not the Holocaust continues to serve as an instructional model or impossible aspiration for cross cultural genocide memorialisation strategies In an era of ongoing political ethnic and religious conflict and unrepentant insurgent activity around the world this collection reminds readers that genocidal actions wherever and whenever they occurred must be held to account by more than rhetoric and concrete memory This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research Twentieth Century Romania Kurt Treptow, 2023-11-21 The studies included in this volume reflect on the history and culture of Romania during the twentieth century a critical century for the country that saw such realizations as the achievement of national unity as well as the horrors of two world wars and the installation of a brutal communist dictatorship ending in the overthrow of the totalitarian regime and the hopes for a freer and more prosperous future These papers written in English and Romanian were presented at the Eighth International Conference of the Center for Romanian Studies held in Iasi Romania on 24-25 June 2002 on the theme Twentieth Century Romania A Retrospective Studies include Dumitru Sandru Arestările Operate în 1945 în România După Instaurarea Guvernului Petru Groza Matthew H Cissel Cei de la Rusi The linguistic identity of the Bessarabian Romanians in the 20th Century Dissidents of the Great Unification Stelu Serban About electoral volatility in interwar Romania Simona Gheorghiu Nicolae Iorga and the Iron Guard Florian Banu Regele Carol al II-lea și emigratia românească din America în timpul celui de al doilea război mondial Mihail Rotaru Sfatul Țării și autodeterminarea Basarabiei Basil D Georgiadis Life After Ceausescu The Challenge of Democracy and NATO Membership for Romania Wally Bacon Contextualizing Interwar Romanian Polish Relations Liviu Groza Periodicizări și Tranzitii în Secolul XX din perspectiva românească and many more

Romania Confronts its Communist Past Vladimir Tismaneanu, Marius Stan, 2018-05-17 Reckoning with mass crimes perpetrated by an ideologically driven regime entails engaging in a thorough going exploration of its utopian foundations In the case of Romania such an analysis requires an interpretation of the role of personality in the construction of a uniquely grotesque and unrepentant form of neo Stalinist despotism Of all the revolutions of 1989 the only violent one took place in Romania Confronting its communist past therefore involves addressing the abuses committed by the communist regime up to its very last day its failure to engage in Round Table type agreements with democratic representatives and the repression during the first post communist years a direct legacy of the old regime This book shows how moral justice can contribute to a restoration of truth and a climate of trust in politics in the absence of which any democratic polity remains exposed to authoritarian attack Public Finance and Post-Communist Party Development Janis Ikstens, 2016-12-05 This key volume explores how party and campaign finance in post communist countries have influenced the development of the party system Based on an analysis of nine case studies the work examines how the implementation of public finance affects the pattern of party competition and the role of money in elections One of the lessons from the post communist experience is that no matter how well designed public finance systems are subject to constant revision as parties politicians and business elites exploit loopholes which can undermine the integrity of the entire system Party and campaign finance systems must therefore be considered in a larger discussion involving party regulation and electoral rules

From Peoples Into Nations John Connelly, 2022-01-25 This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East Connelly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic geographic and political barriers Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteen and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989 The book interconnects major themes and country histories for first time chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears

Justice, Memory and Redress in Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2017-01-06 Are there any lessons Romania can teach transitional justice scholars and practitioners This book argues that important insights emerge when analyzing a country with a moderate record of coming to terms with its communist past Taking a broad definition of transitional justice as their starting point contributors provide fresh assessments of the history commission court trials public identifications of former communist perpetrators commemorations and unofficial artistic projects that seek to address and redress the legacies of communist human rights violations Theoretical and practical questions regarding the continuity of state agencies the sequencing of initiatives their advantages and limitations the reasons why some reckoning programs are enacted and others are not and these measures efficacy in promoting truth and justice are answered throughout the volume Contributors include seasoned scholars from Romania Canada the United States and the United Kingdom and current and former leaders of key Romanian transitional justice institutions

Life in Post-communist Eastern Europe After EU Membership Donnacha Ó Beacháin,Vera Sheridan,Sabina Stan,2012 This book examines how membership of the European Union has affected life in the ten former communist countries of Central and Eastern Europe that are now members of the European Union It attempts to answer some fundamental questions Was the reward of EU membership worth the sacrifices made How have the new member states fared Has the promise of EU membership on which so many expectations were based been realised Or have the new member states traded a Socialist Commonwealth with Moscow pulling the strings for an over centralised Brussels bureaucracy that lacks transparency and accountability How has a shared communist past influenced the countries post socialist and post accession trajectory How have the populations of post communist Europe fared Have some done better than others Are these divergences confined to the political economic or social spheres or to more than one If there have been disappointments how have the populations reacted to these By taking stock of debates within domestic elites popular opinion non governmental organisations civil society and external actors this book seeks to answer these crucial questions

The Politics of a Disillusioned Europe André Liebich,2021-11-16 Moving from the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 to the present day this book traces the trajectory of the six East Central European former satellites of the Soviet Union Poland Hungary the Czech Republic Slovakia Romania Bulgaria that have joined the European Union It seeks in particular to explain these countries disenchantment with the return to Europe in spite of their significant advances The book proceeds country by country and then devotes chapters to some contemporary issues such as minorities migration and the relations of these new members with the European Union as a whole The book eschews theory and is intended for a general audience including students at all levels in political science and history classes devoted to the EU and to contemporary Europe and to an academic and practitioner audience interested in world affairs and the evolution of the European Union The book strives to fill a persistent knowledge gap in the English speaking world concerning East Central Europe and to offer fresh insights about the region in the context of contemporary geopolitics
