Romare Bearden In Black And White:

Romare Bearden in Black-and-white Gail Gelburd,Thelma Golden,Albert Murray,1992 Romare Bearden in Black and White Gail Gelburd,Thelma Golden,1996-09 Published to accompany a travelling exhibition of his work this volume is devoted to the photomontages of Romare Bearden 1914 1988 and considers their relation both to the rest of his oeuvre and to African American art and culture Romare Bearden in Black-and-white Mint Museum of Art,1998 In Black and White Wil Haygood,2020-05-12 The untold story of Sammy Davis Jr This incisive biography and sweeping cultural history conjures the many worlds Davis Jr traversed and shows how the issue of race in his own mind and in the minds of his fans and detractors shaped his career and life The New York Times For decades one of America s most recognizable stars the real Sammy Davis Jr has long remained hidden behind the persona the performer so vigorously generated and so fiercely protected Here Wil Haygood brings Davis s life into full relief against the backdrop of an America in the throes of racial change He made his living entertaining white people but was often denied service in the very venues he played and in his broad and varied friendships not to mention his romances Davis crossed racial lines in ways few others had In Black and White vividly draws on painstaking research and more than two hundred and fifty interviews to trace Davis Jr s journey from the vaudeville stage to Broadway Hollywood and of course Las Vegas It is an important record of a vanished America and of one of its greatest entertainers Generations in Black and White Rudolph P. Byrd,2014-02 This portfolio of eighty three photographs constitutes a stunning celebration of African American achievement in the twentieth century Carl Van Vechten a longtime patron of black writers and artists took these photographs over the course of three decades primarily as gifts to his subjects such luminaries as W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes Bessie Smith Billie Holiday Joe Louis James Baldwin Richard Wright Ruby Dee Lena Horne and James Earl Jones The photographs Rudolph P Byrd has selected for this volume come from the James Weldon Johnson Memorial Collection of Negro Arts and Letters which Van Vechten established at Yale University Byrd has arranged the images chronologically according to the time at which each subject emerged as a vital presence in African American tradition Complementing the photographs are a substantial introduction by Byrd biographical sketches of each subject and poems by the noted writer Michael S Harper The result is a volume of beauty and power a record of black excellence that will engage and inform new generations Engines of the Black Power Movement James L. Conyers, Jr.,2006-12-26 The decade of the 1960s was an era of protest in America and strides toward racial equality were among the most profound effects of the challenges to America s status quo But have civil rights for African Americans been furthered or even maintained in the four decades since the Civil Rights movement began To a certain extent the movement is popularly perceived as having regressed with the real issues tabled or hidden With a view to assessing losses and gains this collection of 17 essays examines the evolution and perception of the African American civil rights movement from its inception through today Going to School in Black and White Cindy Waszak Geary,LaHoma Smith Romocki,2017-09-26 The challenges of identity assimilation achievement and politics that were faced by Lahoma and Cindy are the same challenges our youth are facing today Jaki Shelton Green poet and NC Literary Hall of Fame inductee The school careers of two teenage girls who lived across town from each other one black one white were altered by a court ordered desegregation plan for Durham NC in 1970 LaHoma and Cindy both found themselves at the same high school from different sides of a court ordered racial balancing act This plan thrust each of them involuntarily out of their comfort zones and into new racial landscapes Their experiences recounted in alternating first person narratives are the embodiment of desegregation policies situated in a particular time and place Cindy and LaHoma s intertwining coming of age stories are part of a bigger story about America education and race and about how the personal relates to the political This dual memoir covers the two women s life trajectories from early school days to future careers working in global public health challenging gender biases racial inequities and health disparities LaHoma and Cindy tell their stories aware of the country s return to de facto school segregation achieved through the long term dismantling of policies that initially informed their school assignments As adults they consider the influence of school desegregation on their current lives and the value of bringing all of us into conversation about what is lost or gained when children go to school in black and white

American Exposures Louis Kaplan,2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole s propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen s Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover

Interplay of Things Anthony B. Pinn, 2021-09-20 Drawing on literature along with the visual and performing arts Anthony B Pinn theorizes religion as a technology for interrogating human experiences understanding the ways in which things are always involved in processes of exchange and interplay

Mercy, Mercy Me James C. Hall, 2001 In its original account of black artistry and its recovery of overlooked works of the period Mercy Mercy Me marks a major contribution to our understanding of 1960s American culture

BOOK JACKET 1971 Darby English, 2016-12-20 In this book art historian Darby English explores the year 1971 when two exhibitions opened that brought modernist painting and sculpture into the burning heart of United States cultural politics Contemporary Black Artists in America at the Whitney Museum of American Art and The DeLuxe Show a racially integrated abstract art exhibition presented in a renovated movie theater in a Houston ghetto 1971 A Year in the Life of Color looks at many black artists desire to gain freedom from overt racial representation as well as their efforts and those of their advocates to further that aim through public exhibition Amid calls to define a black aesthetic these experiments with modernist art prioritized cultural interaction and instability Contemporary Black Artists in America highlighted abstraction as a stance against normative approaches while The DeLuxe Show positioned abstraction in a center of urban blight The importance of these experiments English argues came partly from color's special status as a cultural symbol and partly from investigations of color already under way in late modern art and criticism With their supporters black modernists among them Peter Bradley Frederick Eversley Alvin Loving Raymond Saunders and Alma Thomas rose above the demand to represent or be represented compromising nothing in their appeals for interracial collaboration and above all responding with optimism rather than cynicism to the surrounding culture's preoccupation with color

Black Bodies, White Gold Anna Arabindan-Kesson, 2021-03-22 In Black Bodies White Gold Anna Arabindan Kesson uses cotton a commodity central to the slave trade and colonialism as a focus for new interpretations of the way art commerce and colonialism were intertwined in the nineteenth century Atlantic world In doing so Arabindan Kesson models an art historical approach that makes the histories of the Black diaspora central to nineteenth century cultural production She traces the emergence of a speculative vision that informs perceptions of Blackness in which artistic renderings of cotton as both commodity and material became inexorably tied to the monetary value of Black bodies From the production and representation of negro cloth the textile worn by enslaved plantation workers to depictions of Black sharecroppers in photographs and paintings Arabindan Kesson demonstrates that visuality was the mechanism through which Blackness and cotton became equated as resources for extraction In addition to interrogating the work of nineteenth century artists she engages with contemporary artists such as Hank Willis Thomas Lubaina Himid and Yinka Shonibare CBE RA who contend with the commercial and imperial processes shaping constructions of Blackness and meanings of labor

Colored White David R. Roediger, 2003-11 In this splendid book David Roediger shows the need for political activism aimed at transforming the social and political meaning of race No other writer on whiteness can match Roediger's historical breadth and depth his grasp of the formative role played by race in the making of the nineteenth century working class in defining the contours of twentieth century U S citizenship and social membership and in shaping the meaning of emerging social identities and cultural practices in the twenty first century George Lipsitz author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness David Roediger has been showing us all for years how whiteness is a marked and not a neutral color in the history of the United States Colored White with its synthetic sweep and new historical investigations marks yet another advance In the burgeoning literature on whiteness this book stands out for its lucid unjargonridden lively prose its groundedness its analytic clarity and its scope Michael Rogin author of Blackface White Noise

Anywhere But Here Kendahl Radcliffe, Jennifer Scott, Anja Werner, 2014-12-31 Contributions by Keiko Araki Ikaweba Bunting Kimberly Cleveland Amy Caldwell de Farias Kimberli Gant Danielle Legros Georges Douglas W Leonard John Maynard Kendahl Radcliffe Edward L Robinson Jr Jennifer Scott and Anja Werner Anywhere But Here brings together new scholarship on the cross cultural experiences of intellectuals of African descent since the eighteenth century The book embraces historian Paul Gilroy's prominent thesis in The Black Atlantic Modernity and Double Consciousness and posits arguments beyond The Black Atlantic's traditional organization and symbolism Contributions are arranged into three sections that highlight the motivations and characteristics connecting a certain set of agents thinkers and intellectuals the first Re ordering Worldviews Rebellious Thinkers Poets Writers and Political Architects the second Crafting Connections Strategic and Ideological Alliances and the third Cultural Mastery in Foreign Spaces Evolving Visions of Home and Identity These essays expand categories and suggest patterns at play that have united individuals and communities across the African diaspora They highlight the stories of people who from their intercultural and often marginalized positions challenged the status quo created strategic and at times unexpected international alliances cultivated expertise and cultural fluency abroad as well as crafted physical and intellectual spaces for their self expression and dignity to thrive What for example connects the eighteenth century Igbo author Olaudah Equiano with 1940s literary figure Richard Wright nineteenth century expatriate anthropologist Antenor Fermin with 1960s Haitian migrants to the Congo Japanese Pan Asianists and Southern Hemisphere Aboriginal activists with Jamaican born Marcus Garvey or Angela Davis with artists of the British Black Arts Movement Ingrid Pollard and Zarina Bhimji They are all part of a mapping that reaches across and beyond geographical historical and ideological boundaries typically associated with the Black Atlantic They reflect accounts of individuals and communities equally united in their will to seek out better lives often as the title suggests anywhere but here The Other Side of Color David C. Driskell, 2001 This volume presents selections from the highly respected Cosby collection of African American art Their introductions elaborate on their strong belief that African American families should themselves seek to preserve their cultural history and not rely on the mainstream They also provide interesting background about how they began their collection and what owning the art has meant to them The essay by Driskell curator author and scholar places each artist within the context of his or her era from the late 1700s to the present and explores the historical biographical social and political background of each period Also contains biographies of the artists Beautifully illustrated with 91 color plates and several other illustrations Oversize 10 25x13 25 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
