Roman Soldier vs Parthian Warrior Si Sheppard, 2020-07-23 In 53 BC Roman and Parthian forces collided in a confrontation that would reshape the geopolitical map and establish a frontier between East and West that would endure for the next 700 years From the initial clash at Carrhae through to the battle of Nisibis more than 250 years later Roman and Parthian forces fought a series of bloody campaigns for mastery of the Fertile Crescent As Roman forces thrust ever deeper into the East they encountered a civilization unlike any they had crossed swords with before Originating in the steppes of Central Asia the Parthians ruled a federated state stretching from the Euphrates to the Indus Although Rome's legions were masters of the battlefield in the Mediterranean the Parthians refused to fight by the rules as Rome understood them Harnessing the power of the composite bow and their superior manoeuvrability the Parthians mode of warfare focused exclusively on the horse They inflicted a bloody defeat on the legions at Carrhae and launched their own invasion of Roman territory countered only with great difficulty by Rome's surviving forces The Parthians were eventually thrown out but neither side could sustain a permanent ascendancy over the other and the conflict continued Packed with stunning artwork including battlescenes maps and photographs this title examines the conflict through the lens of three key battles revealing a clash between two armies alien to each other not only in culture but also in their radical approaches to warfare The

Land Between the Rivers Bartle Bull, 2024-09-10 The epic five millennia history of the region between the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers that was the birthplace of civilization and remains today the essential crossroads between East and West At the start of the fourth millennium BC at the edge of historical time civilization first arrived with the advent of cities and the invention of writing that began to replace legend with history This occurred on the floodplains of southern Iraq where the great rivers Tigris and Euphrates meet the Persian Gulf By 3000 BC a city called Uruk from which Iraq is derived had 80 000 residents Indeed as Bartle Bull reveals in his magisterial history if one divides the 5 000 years of human civilization into ten periods of five centuries each during the first nine of these the world's leading city was in one of the three regions of current day Iraq or to use its Greek name Mesopotamia Inspired by extensive reporting from the region to spend a decade delving deep into its history Bull chronicles the story of Iraq from the exploits of Gilgamesh almost certainly an historical figure to the fall of the Iraqi monarchy in 1958 that ushered in its familiar modern era The land between the rivers has been the melting pot and battleground of countless outsiders from the Akkadians of Hammurabi and the Greeks of Alexander to the Ottomans of Suleiman the Magnificent Here by the waters of Babylon Judaism was born and the Sunni Shia schism took its bloody shape Central themes play out over the millennia humanity's need for freedom versus the co-eternal urge of tyranny the ever present conflict and cross fertilization of East and West with Iraq so often the hinge We tend to view today's tensions in the Middle East through the prism of the last hundred years since the Treaty of Versailles imposed a controversial realignment of its borders Bartle Bull's remarkable sweeping achievement reminds us that the region defined by the land between the rivers has for five millennia played a uniquely central role on the global stage
