achievement that makes important contributions to the analysis of race identity global media nation and television production cultures Discussions of race and television are too often constricted within national boundaries yet this fantastic book offers a strong compelling and utterly refreshing corrective Read it assign it use it Jonathan Gray author of Television Entertainment Television Studies and Show Sold Separately Black Television Travels explores the globalization of African American television and the way in which foreign markets programming strategies and viewer preferences have influenced portrayals of African Americans on the small screen Television executives have been notoriously slow to recognize the potential popularity of black characters and themes both at home and abroad As American television brokers increasingly seek revenues abroad their assumptions about saleability and audience perceptions directly influence the global circulation of these programs as well as their content Black Television Travels aims to reclaim the history of African American television circulation in an effort to correct and counteract this predominant industry lore Based on interviews with television executives and programmers from around the world as well as producers in the United States Havens traces the shift from an era when national television networks often blocked African American television from traveling abroad to the transnational post network era of today While globalization has helped to expand diversity in African American television particularly in regard to genre it has also resulted in restrictions such as in the limited portrayal of African American women in favor of attracting young male demographics across racial and national boundaries Havens underscores the importance of examining boardroom politics as part of racial discourse in the late modern era when transnational cultural industries like television are the primary sources for dominant representations of blackness Timothy Havens is an Associate Professor of television and media studies in the Department of Communication Studies the Program in African American Studies and the Program in International Studies at the University of Iowa In the Critical Cultural Communication series

Contemporary Authors: 1945 to the Present Britannica Educational Publishing, 2013-06-01 Contemporary literature encompasses so many genres literary forms and themes that it would seem almost impossible to identify a unifying thread between them Yet in the tradition established by literary heavyweights who came before modern writers of all stripes and backgrounds have continued to entertain and to confront the social cultural and psychological realities of the times including everything from racial identity to war to technology with their own flair and insight The diversity of authors profiled herein from Toni Morrison to Sylvia Plath to Stephen King to David Foster Wallace attests to the scope and complexity of modern society

The Untold Stories of Excellence Charles E. Shaw, 2011-07-14 I am not a historian I am simply an American citizen who grew up in Brooklyn New York after my birth in the state of Virginia My family African Americans from the south decided to leave a life of farming and despair to move to New York to start anew with nine children three girls six boys and mother and father who firmly believed that they could make a better life for all their family members As the exception to the rule I finished high school along with my brothers and sisters and went on to college where I earned degrees in business and in law

This enabled me to become an officer and manager in the banking industry where I served over twenty eight years In addition I served a number of years as a businessman served in state government and served in the regular Army of the U S I have written other books on business and banking that were published by and for the banking community as training and management material I am currently working on a series of business books which will be introduced to members of the business community as a source of training for new small business owners and entrepreneurs
