Louisiana Athletes:

Louisiana Athletes , Louisiana Athletes Marty Mule, 1981-01 Who were the top twenty athletes from Louisiana before 1981 Names like Terry Bradshaw and Pete Maravich are some who come to mind Find out their stories as well as the stories of eighteen other Louisiana athletes How did these sportsmen start out and what adversities did they face Louisiana Athletes is fast paced and full of inspirational anecdotes Discover how champion fighter Pete Herman got his start as a French Quarter bootblack and how Willis Reed in order to give his team a will to win overcame extreme pain from a strained thigh muscle and played basketball when he could have been in a wheelchair Not only can you read about these athletes but you can also see what they looked like Each section is accompanied by a photograph of the featured star Marty Muli has compiled a fascinating volume that shows us the humanity and the heroism of these Louisiana legends Louisiana Sports Legends and Heroes Earl B. Heard, Dave Moormann, 2012-11 There are many books out there about famous Louisiana athletes and their accomplishments but little is said about their contributions beyond the field court So many of our state s greatest and lesser known athletes and coaches have used their fame successes and faith to make sure those less fortunate get the help they need Whether it s Warrick Dunn and his famous Homes for the Holidays program or Sid Edwards and his work with autism these athletes and coaches are perfect examples of using success for good Louisiana Sports Legends and Heroes Leaving a Legacy shows how these athletes and coaches are creating a positive image of what real heroes are not only across America but also globally Game Changers Marty Mulé, 2013 Louisiana almost defies logic when it comes to sports Its native sons daughters and teams have left stamps on sports all out of proportion for what could be expected of a relatively small southern state As Marty Mule a legend among the state s sportswriters shows Louisiana s athletic punch far exceeds its weight class Game Changers documents the enthralling history of Louisiana s athletes and more There s the memorable match races between Lexington and Lecompe and Black Gold s Run for the Roses There s Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon on his famed punt return Steve Van Buren rushing for the unheard of total of a thousand yards twice for the Philadelphia Eagles Tom Dempsey s jaw dropping field goal and the Saints finally marching into the Super Bowl winners club There s the longest winning streak 218 in a row for any sport or team outside of the Harlem Globetrotters set by the Baskin High School girls basketball team And then there are the games themselves historic events such as the Sullivan Corbett fight which changed boxing forever Super Bowl IV which altered the course of professional football or the NCAA Final Four tournament where Michael Jordan got his first flush of national accolades Maybe the motto on the license plate should read Sports Fans Paradise For those who follow teams and athletes from the Pelican State Louisiana is a boot shaped Valhalla Bulletin , 1941 Bulletin United States. It's still difficult to describe the scene after the final buzzer sounded because the moment was just so damned surreal writes head coach Gary Blair following the conclusion of the title game of the 2011 NCAA Division I women's basketball tournament. So many things happened that I will never forget kissing my wife on the floor of Consecration Fieldhouse looking toward the stands where my grandson was flashbulbs popping as the Aggie Band played triumphantly our players and coaches wildly celebrating the biggest win in women's basketball history at Texas A M tears streaming down the faces of former players I remember thinking that I wished I could somehow stop time This memory and countless others form the greatest treasure of Coach Blair's life as he makes clear in this engaging inspiring memoir written with veteran sports journalist and author Rusty Burson Indeed as Blair says What I cherish the most are the memories of these players and coaches Beyond the trophies beyond the impressive won lost record compiled over more than four decades of coaching beyond even the ungrudging professional respect he has achieved among his peers in a fiercely competitive occupation Gary Blair values the images moments and memories collected during a life spent doing what he loves most coaching and mentoring young women on the basketball court In A Coaching Life Coach Blair offers readers a freeze frame view of a storied career He serves up more than a few of his favorite memories with wit grace and humility In the process he invites readers to reflect on life's wins and losses and most importantly what both have to teach us      Call Me Coach Paul F. Dietzel, 2008-09-15

When LSU head football coach Paul Dietzel saw Billy Cannon field an Ole Miss punt on LSU's own eleven yard line on a stifling Halloween night in 1959 his shouts of No no no turned to Go go go as Cannon eluded tackler after tackler sending fans in Tiger Stadium into a frenzy and earning himself that year's Heisman Trophy Dietzel is probably best known for leading LSU to its first national championship the year before Cannon's legendary run but his career in athletics also carried him to numerous posts across the country and put him in the company of some of the best coaching minds of all time In Call Me Coach Dietzel affectionately recalls his rich and varied life in college football In 1948 Dietzel decided to forgo medical school at Columbia University to become the plebe football coach at West Point As an assistant over the next few years he worked with Bear Bryant at the University of Kentucky Colonel Red Blaik and Vince Lombardi at West Point and Sid Gillman at the University of Cincinnati Taking the job of head coach at LSU in 1955 he reversed the Tigers losing skid and using the wing T formation and a revolutionary three team substitution system incorporating the White Team the Go Team and the renowned Chinese Bandits crafted 1958's unbeaten championship season The thirty three year old Dietzel was voted National Coach of the Year by the widest margin ever Back at West Point from 1961 to 1965 Dietzel rallied the Cadets to finally beat Navy and as South Carolina's football coach and athletics director from 1966 to 1974 he took the Gamecocks to their first bowl game in twenty five years and mandated the recruitment of black athletes in all sports programs After twenty years as a head coach with 109 wins and 95 losses at three schools and a postseason record of 11 victories and 3 defeats Dietzel retired from coaching in 1974 later serving as athletics director at Indiana and LSU Through Dietzel's eyes readers glimpse college football during a simpler time but also see that many facets of the game including recruitment challenges job insecurity press relations and fickle fans remain constant Highlights among the book's many unforgettable anecdotes are a 1962 interview with Howard Cosell discussion about West Point's football team with General Douglas MacArthur and a rare disagreement with Bear Bryant during a staff meeting Dietzel's recollections of his early and later years help complete the story of the man In a warm raconteur's voice he describes his impoverished childhood in Ohio his own participation in high school and college sports and his stint flying B 29 missions over Japan during World War II His postretirement endeavors have included providing color commentary for TV selling fudge teaching skiing and watercolor painting Always at the top of Dietzel's priorities have been friends family and faith Gratitude rings as a constant refrain in Call Me Coach and sports enthusiasts everywhere will be grateful that Dietzel has shared these recollections of his remarkable life Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Report, 1990
