Lucha Libre, the Family Portraits Lourdes Grobet, 2009 Since childhood Lourdes Grobet was interested in the spectacle of Mexican wrestling Is the only woman who has worked on the subject for over 25 years and with his glasses has been capturing the magic of this passionate sport there is much talk and little is known because it is a world apart especially admired but misunderstood These fighters need your costume because their appearance is not only a beautiful ornament characteristic of the specific context of wrestling but also a weapon to confuse dazzle and to scare opponents

Warriors altered by the sublime pleasure of assumed stoically anonymous whose public life may be a legend known but whose private life must be a secret for his epic fantasy confronts the everyday normal environmental design with particular mystery In this fascinating book the assiduous of sand goes into the private lives of these idols in their homes in their meeting places and historical celebrations of the gladiators of the ring Rafael Tonatiuh brings special insight into this social phenomenon unique in the world Each fighter brings us to the edge of mystery personnel

Women Photographers and Mexican Modernity Julia R. Brown, Radmila Stefkova, Tamara R. Williams, 2024-02-27 The photographers discussed in this book probe the most contentious aspects of social organization in Mexico questioning what it means to belong to be Mexican to experience modernity and to create art as a culturally politically or racially marginalized person By choosing human subjects spaces and aesthetics excluded from the Lettered City each of the photographers discussed in this volume produces a corpus of art that contests dominant narratives of social and cultural modernization in Mexico Taken together their work represents diverging and diverse notions of what is meant by Mexican modernity The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography women's studies and Mexican studies

Non-literary Fiction Esther Gabara, 2022-12-06 Explores a new form of fiction that emerged in late twentieth century visual art across the Americas With Non literary Fiction Esther Gabara examines how contemporary art produced across the Americas has reacted to the rising tide of neoliberal regimes focusing on the crucial role of fiction in daily politics Gabara argues that these fictions depart from familiar literary narrative structures and emerge in the new mediums and practices that have revolutionized contemporary art Each chapter details how fiction is created through visual art forms in performance and body art posters mail art found objects and installations For Gabara these fictions comprise a type of art that asks viewers to collaborate in the creation of the work and helps them to withstand the brutal restrictions imposed by dominant neoliberal regimes During repressive regimes of the 1960s and 1970s and free trade agreements of the 1990s artists and critics consistently said no to economic privatization political deregulation and reactionary social logic as they rejected inherited notions of visual literary and political representation Through close analyses of artworks and writings by leading figures of these two generations including Indigenous thinkers Gabara shows how negation allows for the creation of fiction outside textual forms of literature

The Political Body Andrea Giunta, 2023-03-28 This book discusses how some works of art produced in Latin America in the sixties seventies and eighties forged a different understanding of the female body understood as space for the expression of a dissident subjectivity in relation to socially normalized places Representations of art and of feminist activism interrogated the disciplining of the female body that entails as well the disciplining of the male body Before a history of highly regulated artistic representations regardless of the occasional exceptions a historian might point out images erupted that questioned the social and institutional naturalization of the feminine and the masculine
