Johnson, Deborah Schultz, 2025-02-07 This collection of chapters investigates the effects of mobility and place on a range of photographic archives and explores their potential for cross-disciplinary dialogue The book explores photographic images used in the study of art as well as the implications of placing European images of non-European cultures in an archive album library or museum It also addresses questions of digital space which renders images more visually accessible but further complicates issues relating to location The contributors consider these issues through case studies based on a variety of archives institutions and disciplines Just as photographs are conceived as unstable objects so conventional borders between disciplines and locations are challenged and opened up with chapters drawing on a range of disciplinary theories and practices The focus of the individual chapters is global as seen in contributions not only on Euro American topics but also on Orientalizing approaches to photographing the Ancient Near East photographic archives of Bedouin subjects and digital photographic archives in an Iranian context This book will be of interest to scholars of art history visual and cultural studies anthropology and archaeology as well as those working on the history and theory of photography and histories and theories of the archive Libraries in the Manuscript Age Nuria de Castilla,François Déroche,Michael Friedrich,2023-02-20 The case studies presented in this volume help illuminate the rationale for the founding of libraries in an age when books were handwritten thus contributing to the comparative history of libraries They focus on examples ranging from the seventh to the seventeenth century emanating from the Muslim World East Asia Byzantium and Western Europe Accumulation and preservation are the key motivations for the development of libraries Rulers scholars and men of religion were clearly dedicated to collecting books and sought to protect these fragile objects against the various hazards that threatened their survival Many of these treasured books are long gone but there remain hosts of evidence enabling one to reconstruct the collections to which they belonged found in ancient buildings literary accounts archival documentation and most crucially catalogues With such material at hand or in some cases the manuscripts of a certain library which have come down to us it is possible to reflect on the nature of these libraries of the past the interests of their owners and their role in the intellectual history of the manuscript age Advances in Conceptual Modeling Peter P.
