Duban,2019-04-12 Sappho in the words of poet Algernon Charles Swinburne 1837-1909 was simply nothing less as she is certainly nothing more than the greatest poet who ever was at all Born over 2,600 years ago on the Greek island of Lesbos Sappho the namesake lesbian wrote amorously of men and women alike exhibiting both masculine and feminine tendencies in her poetry and life What's left of her writing and what we know of her is fragmentary and thus ever subject to speculation and study The Shipwreck Sea highlights the love poetry of the soulful Sappho the impassioned Ibycus and the playful Anacreon among other Greek lyric poets of the age 7th to 5th centuries BC with verse translations into English by author Jeffrey Duban The book also features selected Latin poets who wrote on erotic themes Catullus Lucretius Horace and Petronius and poems by Charles Baudelaire with his milestone rejoinder to lesbian love Lesbos and in the same stanzaic meter a turn to the consoling power of memory in love's more frequently tormented recall Le Balcon Duban also translates selected Carmina Burana of Carl Orff the poems frequently Anacreontic in spirit The book's essays include a comprehensive analysis with a new translation of Horace's famed Odes 1-5

Jaeger, 2010-08-03 Richard Duke of Aquitaine son of the King of England remained with Philip the King of France who so honored him for so long that they ate every day at the same table and from the same dish and at night their beds did not separate them And the King of France loved him as his own soul and they loved each other so much that the King of England was absolutely astonished at the vehement love between them and marveled at what it could mean Public avowals of love between men were common from antiquity through the Middle Ages What do these expressions leave to interpretation An extraordinary amount as Stephen Jaeger demonstrates Unlike current efforts to read medieval culture through modern mores Stephen Jaeger contends that love and sex in the Middle Ages relate to each other very differently than in the postmedieval period Love was not only a mode of feeling and desiring or an exclusively private sentiment but a way of behaving and a social ideal It was a form of aristocratic self representation its social function to show forth virtue in lovers to raise their inner worth to increase their honor and enhance their reputation To judge from the number of royal love relationships documented it seems normal rather than exceptional that a king loved his favorites and the courtiers and advisors clerical and lay loved their superiors and each other Jaeger makes an elaborate accessible and certain to be controversial case for the centrality of friendship and love as aristocratic lay clerical and monastic ideals Ennobling Love is a magisterial work a book that charts the social constructions of passion and sexuality in our own times no less than in the Middle Ages

Pastoral Drama and Healing in Early Modern Italy Federico Schneider, 2016-05-13 Pastoral Drama and Healing in Early Modern Italy represents the first full length study to confront seriously the well rehearsed analogy of the pastoral poet as healer Usually associated with the edifying function of the Renaissance pastoral this analogy if engaged more profoundly raises a number of questions that remain unanswered to this day How does the pastoral heal How exactly do the inner workings of the text cater to the healing What socio cultural conventions make the healing possible What are the major problems that pastoral poetry as mimesis must overcome to make its healing morally legitimate In the wake of Derrida's seminal work on the Platonic pharmakon which has in turn led recent criticism to formulate a much more concrete understanding of the theater drug analogy the stringent approach to the therapeutic function of the Renaissance pastoral offered in this work provides a valuable critical tool to unpack the complexity contained within a little understood cliché
