Melancholy, Love, and Time Peter G. Toohey, 2010-03-11 Ancient literature features many powerful narratives of madness depression melancholy lovesickness simple boredom and the effects of such psychological states upon individual sufferers Peter Toohey turns his attention to representations of these emotional states in the Classical Hellenistic and especially the Roman imperial periods in a study that illuminates the cultural and aesthetic significance of this emotionally charged literature His probing analysis shows that a shifting representation of these afflicted states and the concomitant sense of isolation from one's social affinities and surroundings manifests a developing sense of the self and self consciousness in the ancient world This book makes important contributions to a variety of disciplines including classical studies comparative literature literary and art history history of medicine history of emotions psychiatry and psychology Peter Toohey is Professor and Department Head of Greek and Roman Studies at the University of Calgary Canada Nausea Jean-Paul Sartre, 2007

Schalkwyk, 2018-01-25 Comprehensive study of the concept of love in Shakespeare's work exploring historical contexts theory and philosophy of love For Love of Wisdom Josef Pieper, 2010-06-17 In these elegant and engaging essays the internationally acclaimed Thomist Josef Pieper defines and defends philosophy as the search for and love of wisdom True philosophy is not the work of joyless academics pondering over esoteric writings that have no relation to real life Rather the philosophical act in which all reasonable men can participate begins in wonder at what is and gratitude for what is given and ends in love In his encyclical letter Fides et Ratio On the Relationship between Faith and Reason Pope John Paul II called for a revitalization of true philosophy for man can find fulfillment only in choosing to enter the truth to make a home under the shade of Wisdom and dwell there Pieper's essays make the same ardent and convincing plea Josef Pieper is renowned for having popularized the philosophy of St Thomas Aquinas a brilliant student of St Thomas who in his own voluminous works has made the deep thought of the Angelic Doctor more accessible and understandable to the modern reader

Pratt,2015-01-28 This Crazy Love Crazy Mountain Series Book 1      If Only Love Jalene Haines,2021-07-30 Child abuse was once a taboo subject which families neighbors schools church staff and membership worked diligently to maintain secrecy Passage of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act CAPTA in 1974 marked the nation's first major step forward in addressing issues related to child abuse Following this states had mandatory reporting laws for persons aware of such abuse This book covers the subject of child abuse prior to CAPTA Even though members of a family and community may have been aware of such abuse they chose not to be involved Occasionally someone might speak up about such abuse but without agencies to intervene the child's abuse routinely increased in severity For individuals like Jalene the victim of child abuse and domestic violence there were no agencies to assist her pleas for help In 1982 the Domestic Protection Act came into place when it came to protect individuals from domestic violence However domestic violence in the church remained strong and without resources According to statistics in 2017 in the Christian community one in every four women experiences family violence As the awareness and incidence of domestic violence increases many pastors still adhere to the philosophy that spouses are to remain married because they took a vow before God Some pastors find themselves ill equipped to deal with the crisis of domestic violence There is very little if any training provided in the majority of seminaries on family violence This book also discusses the topic of parental alienation syndrome PAS which added another layer of sorrow to the author of this book PAS is a term to describe psychological manipulation or undue influence of a child by a parent against the other parent preventing an ongoing relationship between the victimized parent and their child
