Love In Shadow:

Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové, 2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet's tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin's suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bov challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bov's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bov seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it

Will the Hoover gang be able to reign supreme or will they fall at the hands of the women who are supposed to have their backs? The infamous Hoover gang, Babyface, Blaze, Quick, and Shadow, have taken Chicago by storm. These four are not your average street thugs; Bank robbers by day and club owners by night, they have held on to their place at the top by never trusting anyone enough to allow them in their circle. The moment they do, all hell breaks loose. Zayn, Blaze, Hoover, has always lived by the code: never trust a female, hit and quit. Then he meets Drea and starts doing everything differently. He wants to give her the world and he's ready to change his ways for her until someone sets him up, and all signs lead to her. Zavien, Shadow, Hoover is the youngest of the crew. He's never wanted the females that come along with their lifestyle. Engaged to his first love, Shirree, he's ready to make her his wife. After a big argument and a night of drinking, however, Shadow does something that could jeopardize their love forever. Out for revenge, Shirree might be crossing a line that puts them both in a difficult position. Xavier, Quick, Hoover is not overly impressed by the ladies who surround him, but Alaysia sweeps him away with her beauty, at least on the outside. On the inside, she's ugly to the core. The harder he falls, the closer she gets to his circle. Unbeknownst to him, that's where she wanted to be all along. Not only do her scandalous ways affect Quick, but the whole Hoover gang may be at risk. Zaire, Babyface, Hoover has always been open to love, but when he finds it, will he get the chance to be happy? Being the oldest, he has to clean up the mess his brothers created and he might lose his love in order to do it. My Love! Elizabeth Lynn Linton, 2025-07-09 Reprint of the original first published in 1881. William Shakespeare, 1898 Shakespeare's Use of the Arts of Language Sister Miriam Joseph, 2008-09 Grammar school students in Shakespeare's time were taught to recognise the two hundred figures of speech that Renaissance scholars had derived from Latin and Greek sources from amphibologia through onomatopoeia to zeugma. This knowledge was one element in their thorough grounding in the liberal arts of logic, grammar and rhetoric known as the trivium. In Shakespeare's Use of the Arts of Language, Sister Miriam Joseph writes: 'The extraordinary power, vitality and richness of Shakespeare's language are due in part to his genius, in part to the fact that the unsettled linguistic forms of his age promoted to an unusual degree the spirit of creativeness and in part to the theory of composition then prevailing.' The purpose of this study is to present to the modern reader the general theory of composition current in Shakespeare's England. The author then lays out those figures of speech in simple understandable patterns and explains each one with examples from Shakespeare. Her analysis of his plays and poems illustrates that the Bard knew more about rhetoric than perhaps anyone else. Originally published in 1947, this book is a classic.
