

A photograph of a park bench in autumn. The ground is covered in fallen orange and yellow leaves. In the background, there are trees with similar foliage. A semi-transparent dark rectangular box is overlaid on the image, containing a quote in white text. Below the quote, the name 'Mother Teresa' is written in a smaller, pinkish font, and a small circular logo with the word 'quotefancy' is visible at the bottom center of the box.

Reid Meloy, 2013-06-17 The Mark of Cain makes available for the first time the accumulated psychoanalytic understanding of the psychopathic mind Editor Reid Meloy a leading authority on the psychology of the psychopath has brought together in a single collection the most historically important psychoanalytic papers on the psychopath and delineated their continuing relevance to contemporary understanding According to Meloy two theoretical traditions flow into the psychoanalytic understanding of psychopathy The first tributary focuses on the early development of the psychopath in order to illuminate how a profound alteration in self regard leads both to a denigration of the other and to an impulsive search for gratification in the present The second tributary seeks to locate the psychopathic miscarriage of human potentiality within analytic theories of personality structure and clinically grounded differential diagnosis Meloy presents the major contributions associated with both of these traditions Included within this body of literature are the original formulations of concepts that have long since become part of the psychoanalytic nomenclature the affectionless juvenile offender the diagnostic significance of affect hunger the behavioral consequences of superego lacunae the recourse to promiscuous identification in the impostor and the paradoxically lethal lure of malignant narcissism Of special interest are Meloy s historical notes to each chapter and two section introductions the latter major essays in their own right The explosion of empirical research on psychopathy over the past two decades masks the fact that much contemporary work in this area is grounded in the clinical formulations of leading psychoanalysts of the twentieth century The Mark of Cain rescues this intimate understanding of the inner world of the psychopath and thereby contributes to clinical realism in the face of deception manipulation exploitation and even frank dangerousness

The Signature of all Things Jacob Boehme, 2014-05-29 It is not to be thought that the life of darkness is sunk in misery and lost as if in sorrow There is no sorrowing For sorrowing is a thing swallowed up in death and death and dying are the very life of the darkness Jacob Boehme's mystical pantheism and dialectical conception of God in which good and evil are rooted in one and the same being soon brought him into conflict with Lutheran orthodoxy It is in The Signature of all Things Signatura Rerum that the tenets of Boehme's theosophy are related in their greatest detail Casting the reader into the vortex of his cosmological universe Boehme's endeavour to express a new sense of the human divine and natural realms attains its apotheosis in his conception of the Ungrund the uncertainty that precedes the divine will's arousing itself to self awareness Challenging and rewarding in equal measure this is a profound text deeply influential upon devotional writers such as William Law visionaries such as William Blake informing The Marriage of Heaven and Hell and more recently upon cultural production as diverse as the psychology of Carl Jung and Philip Pullman's His Dark Materials trilogy
