Cross-Cultural Computing: An Artist's Journey Naoko Tosa,2016-03-01 This exciting new book explores the relationship between cultural traditions and computers looking at how people from very different cultures and backgrounds communicate and how the use of information technologies can support and enhance these dialogues Historically we developed our understanding of other cultures through traditional means museums printed literature etc but the advent of information technologies has allowed us access to a plethora of material Tosa asks the question Can we understand other cultures using computers as media to supplement thinking and memorization Starting with a survey of art and technology moving into the area of culture and technology the book culminates with a vision of a new world based on an understanding of these relationships allowing cultural creators and viewers the opportunity to reach a better and more profound understanding of the role information technology will play going forward The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun,2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Modernism and prompts a reconsideration of its canonical texts and figures Contrary to many artists of Modernism who devised highly individualistic aesthetic styles the artists of Pool strove towards a universal art of humanity that was rooted in all human nature and psychology Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel,1974 Zen, Poetry, the Art of Lucien Stryk Susan Porterfield,1993 Lucien Stryk has been a presence in American letters for almost fifty years Those who know his poetry well will find this collection particularly gratifying Like journeying again to places visited long ago Stryk s writing is both familiar and wonderfully fresh For those just becoming acquainted with Stryk s work Zen Poetry the Art of Lucien Stryk makes an excellent introduction It includes his early essay The American Scene Versus the International Scene written shortly after his service in the Pacific during World War II and Digging In his first published poem as well as some of his best known pieces on Zen and Zen poetry Among the latter are Beginnings Ends Poetry and Zen I Fear Nothing A Note on the Zen

Poetry of Death and his introduction to the great haiku poets Issa and Basho Selections of his most recent work include The Red Rug An Introduction to Poetry and an imagined conversation among all four leading haiku poets called Meeting at Hagi no Tera Porterfield's informative collection includes essays about Stryk's work as well as his own prose and poetry As the volume makes clear writing poetry is for Lucien Stryk a sacred act It is both escape and communion inseparable from life's daily activities The Art of Poetry John Frost,1985 The Princeton Handbook of Multicultural Poetries Terry V.F.

Brogan,2021-04-13 Drawn from the acclaimed New Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics the articles in this concise new reference book provide a complete survey of the poetic history and practice in every major national literature or cultural tradition in the world As with the parent volume which has sold over 10 000 copies since it was first published in 1993 the intended audience is general readers journalists students teachers and researchers The editor's principle of selection was balance and his goal was to embrace in a structured and reasoned way the diversity of poetry as it is known across the globe today In compiling material on 106 cultures in 92 national literatures the book gives full coverage to Indo European poetries all the major Celtic Slavic Germanic and Romance languages as well as other obscure ones such as Hittite the ancient middle Eastern poetries Hebrew Persian Sumerian and Assyro Babylonian subcontinental Indian poetries the widest linguistic diversity Asian and Pacific poetries Chinese Japanese Korean Vietnamese Mongolian and half a dozen others continental American poetries all the modern Western cultures and native Indian in North Central and South American regions and African poetries ancient and emergent oral and written The Princeton Companion to Classical Japanese Literature

Earl Miner,Robert E. Morrell,Hiroko Odagiri,2020-09-01 The description for this book The Princeton Companion to Classical Japanese Literature will be forthcoming On Love and Barley Matsuo Basho,1985-08-29 Basho one of the greatest of Japanese poets and the master of haiku was also a Buddhist monk and a life long traveller His poems combine karumi or lightness of touch with the Zen ideal of oneness with creation Each poem evokes the natural world the cherry blossom the leaping frog the summer moon or the winter snow suggesting the smallness of human life in comparison to the vastness and drama of nature Basho himself enjoyed solitude and a life free from possessions and his haiku are the work of an observant eye and a meditative mind uncluttered by materialism and alive to the beauty of the world around him Tamil Love

Poetry Martha Ann Selby,2011-06-07 Dating from the early decades of the third century C E the Ainkurunuru is believed to be the world's earliest anthology of classical Tamil love poetry Commissioned by a Cera dynasty king and composed by five masterful poets the anthology illustrates the five landscapes of reciprocal love jealous quarreling anxious waiting and lamentation clandestine love before marriage elopement and love in separation and patient waiting after marriage Despite its centrality to literary and intellectual traditions the Ainkurunuru remains relatively unknown beyond specialists Martha Ann Selby well known translator of classical Indian poetry and literature takes the bold step of opening this anthology to all readers presenting crystalline translations of 500 poems dense with natural imagery and early examples of South Indian culture Because of their form s short length the anthology s five authors rely on double entendre and sophisticated techniques of suggestion giving their poems an almost haikulike feel Groups of verse center on one unique figure in some cases an object or an animal in others a line of direct address or a specific conversation or situation Selby introduces each section with a biographical sketch of the poet and the conventions at work within the landscape She then incorporates notes explaining shifting contexts Excerpt He has gone off all by himself beyond the wastes where tigers used to prowland the toothbrush trees grow tall their trunks parched on the flinty mountains while the lovely folds of your loins wide as a chariot s seat vanish as your circlet worked from gold grows far too large for you The Haiku Anthology Cor Van den Heuvel, 1986
