progressive way while also investigating the ways in which screenplays have been traditionally told this book interrogates how screenplays can be written to reflect the diverse life experiences of real people Author Jess King explores how existing paradigms of screenplays often exclude the very people watching films and TV today Taking aspects such as characterization screenplay structure and world building King offers ways to ensure your screenplays are inclusive and allow for every person's story to be heard In addition to examples ranging from Sorry to Bother You to Portrait of a Lady on Fire four case studies on Killing Eve Sense8 I May Destroy You and Vida ground the theoretical work in practical application The book highlights the ways in which screenplays can authentically represent and uplift the lived experiences of those so often left out of the narrative such as the LGBTQIA community women and people of color The book addresses a current demand for more inclusive and progressive representation in film and TV and equips screenwriters with the tools to ensure their screenplays tell authentic stories offering innovative ways to reimagine current screenwriting practice towards radical equity and inclusion This is a timely and necessary book that brings the critical lenses of gender studies queer theory and critical race studies to bear on the practice of screenwriting ideal for students of screenwriting aspiring screenwriters and industry professionals alike
