Be Still and Know That I Am Toni De Leseleuc,2008-11-19 In this lost world where there is very little hope we all need to reach out to lift up and encourage each other every day This anthology of inspirational poems was written in the hopes that someone out there would read one of the poems and see themselves or their situation in my words Reflect and be comforted by this thought God never forsakes us or abandons us I pray that people would receive hope love joy peace and salvation through our Lord and savior Jesus Christ The second part of the book about mothers is to make us reflect on our childhood It was written to encourage mothers all over the world and to let them know that they are very special to all of us I pray that this book will be a source of reflection healing prayer and encouragement I hope that this vessel of a book will help heal the lost and broken hearted for without God and each other we have nothing The Leader Who Covers Apostle Winston G Baker,2017-11-20 Don t betray Cover someone today The Leader Who Covers is another spiritually riveting and incisive book in which Apostle Winston Baker explains how God wants his leaders to operate From a biblical perspective Apostle Baker compares persons who covered the anointing with those who did not and underscores the blessings that comes with honouring the anointing the way God intends it Spiritually Riveting Inspiring Motivating Evocative Powerful Engaging Captivating Addictive Read Enthralling Insightful Sacra Pagina: James Patrick J. Hartin,2023-06-13 In his commentary on the letter of James Hartin offers a unique approach toward understanding a much neglected writing Refusing to read the letter of James through the lens of Paul Hartin approaches the letter in its own right He takes seriously the address to the twelve tribes in the Dispersion 1 1 as directed to Jews who had embraced the message of Jesus and were living outside their homeland Israel At the same time Hartin shows how this letter remains true to Jesus heritage Using recent studies on rhetorical culture Hartin illustrates how James takes Jesus sayings and performs them again in his own way to speak to the hearers readers of his own world Hartin examines the text passage by passage while providing essential notes and an extensive explanation of the theological meaning of each passage The value of this commentary lies in its breadth of scholarship and its empathic approach to this writing The reader will discover new and refreshing insights into the world of early Christianity as well as a teaching that is of perennial significance Become a Better You Joel Osteen,2009-08-04 Explains how to apply seven action steps to discover individual purpose and destiny in a guide complemented by biblical principles devotions and personal testimonies My Husband Amara Okoye,2011-09-13 God Created Man in His Image and Likeness Oried E. Graves,2012-10-26 Everyone who reads the Bible must admit that it tells us to do things that we never have done and cannot do in our fleshly bodies One reason is that God our Creator is telling us what He wants us to be and do as created in His image and likeness Our purpose is in our image and likeness of God our Creator not like the dust of the ground or the flesh of our parents Most children dont know that they are created in the image and likeness of God and their parents have not asked God for His spirit for their children so they can be taught this vital truth The reason parents don't ask God for His spirit for their children is because they don't recognize the need for Him. There are several things mankind cannot do in the flesh and they must recognize their origin in the image and likeness of God. Mankind must recognize being in the image and likeness of God to first love God with all their being and love his neighbors as himself second to obey God and his parents as required in God's word third to trust God with all his heart fourth to worship God in spirit and in truth and fifth to glorify God in his body and spirit which are God. The devil does not want mankind to know that he is created in the image and likeness of God because man will always defeat Satan and fulfill God's will.

Crystallization-study of Job, Proverbs, and Ecclesiastes Witness Lee, 2021-01-02 This book is intended as an aid to believers in developing a daily time of morning revival with the Lord in His word. At the same time it provides a limited review of the semi annual training held December 21-26 2020 on crystallization studies of Job Proverbs and Ecclesiastes. Through intimate contact with the Lord in His word the believers can be constituted with life and truth and thereby equipped to prophesy in the meetings of the church unto the building up of the Body of Christ. Behave as a Church Member Dr. Christopher Powers, 2023-03-27 Behave as a Church Member takes a look at how church members can use their spiritual gifts which are given by the Holy Spirit to grow more mature in their walk with Christ edify the church by helping others and glorifying Jesus Christ. 1 Peter Donald Senior, Daniel J. Harrington, 2003 Crisis in the church is not a new phenomenon. In fact the church has always been and probably always will be involved in some kind of crisis. Even in the apostolic period which is regarded by many as the church's golden age there were serious crises coming both from the outside as in 1 Peter and from the inside as in Jude and 2 Peter. The three short New Testament letters treated in 1 Peter, Jude and 2 Peter illustrate the problems early Christians faced as well as the rhetorical techniques and theological concepts with which they combated those problems. In the first part of this volume Donald Senior views 1 Peter as written from Rome in Peter's name to several churches in northern Asia Minor present day Turkey in the latter part of the first century C.E. The new Christians addressed in 1 Peter found themselves aliens and exiles in the wider Greco Roman society and suffered a kind of social ostracism. But they are given a marvelous theological vision of who they have become through their baptism and pastoral encouragement to stand firm. They are shown how to take a missionary stance toward the outside world by giving the witness of a holy and blameless life to offset the slander and ignorance of the non-Christian majority and possibly even to lead them to glorify God on the day of judgment. In the second part of this volume Daniel Harrington interprets Jude and 2 Peter as confronting crises in the late first century that were perpetrated by Christian teachers who are described polemically as intruders in Jude and as false teachers in 2 Peter. In confronting the crises within their churches the authors appeal frequently to the Old Testament and to early summaries of Christian faith. While Jude uses other Jewish traditions 2 Peter includes most of the text of Jude as well as many distinctively Greek terms and concepts. It is clear that for the authors despite their different social settings what was at stake was the struggle for the faith. Daniel J. Harrington SJ is a professor of

New Testament at Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge Massachusetts and general editor of New Testament Abstracts He is a past president of the Catholic Biblical Association of American and the editor of the Sacra Pagina series He also wrote The Gospel of Matthew in the Sacra Pagina series Donald Senior CP is a professor of New Testament studies and president of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago He was recently appointed by Pope John Paul II to the Pontifical Biblical Commission General editor of The Bible Today he also co edited The Collegeville Pastoral Dictionary of the Bible and the 22 volume international commentary series New Testament Message and he wrote the four volume The Passion series published by The Liturgical Press

The Epistles of St. Peter and St. Jude Preached and Explained With An Analyticall Exposition

Martin Luther, William Ames, 2020-09-28 Several years ago among the dusty piles of old pamphlets stored away upon the upper shelves of the Union Theological Seminary library I met with several works of Luther in the original editions as they were issued during his lifetime from his press at Wittemberg Among them were his Commentaries or rather Lectures on the Epistles of Peter and Jude The forbidding aspect of the page with the obsolete spelling of its words and its somewhat coarse typography was rather an incitement to master it for here was Luther presenting himself to the eye of the reader just as more than three hundred years ago he presented himself to the eyes of thousands of his countrymen Upon a partial perusal of the Commentary I became satisfied that it would repay a more attentive study and finding upon investigation that it had never been translated into English I set myself to the task which had been so long neglected The pleasing labor was accomplished and the manuscript laid aside for several years The conviction confirmed by a re perusal of it that others besides myself would be interested in the work has led me to determine on its publication Another copy of this same edition of Luther on Peter belonging to a clergyman s library which was sold at auction in this city four or five years since brought an almost fabulous price Luther s Commentary on the Galatians excellent as it is is too voluminous and expensive to be very extensively circulated while the phraseology of the early translation which has not been modified prevents its proper appreciation by modern readers And yet any one that would truly know the man and the secret of his power must study these in his writings The Commentary on the Epistles of Peter and Jude presented in a literal but more modern style to the English reader is not liable to these objections and yet in the variety of its themes the clearness of its exposition the stinging force of its rebukes the simplicity and directness of its language it is scarcely surpassed by any of Luther s other writings On the great subject of justification by faith alone he is here as in his Commentary on the Epistle to the Galatians full and emphatic The relation of faith to works is clearly and carefully defined while the subjects presented in the text afford full opportunity for discussing the great questions that concern the relative duties of civil and social life The volume thus becomes at once a manual of doctrine and of duty On the foundation of faith is reared the superstructure of a Christian life Luther is seen to have fully apprehended the force of all the objections that could be urged against his teachings and with convincing ability he vindicates them from every charge Throughout the volume we have ever before us the earnest devout spirit of the Reformer for the most part unfolding in the simplest manner the great doctrines of the Gospel but occasionally indulging in volcanic outbursts of indignation against the hierarchical corruptions of his day and pouring out upon them the lava tides of withering rebuke It may seem strange that this work of Luther's has never before been translated But unlike his Commentary on the Epistle to the Galatians which he himself translated into Latin that it might have a wider circulation among the learned of Europe this was published by him only in the German language which was little known in England and hence it was deprived of that notoriety which would have drawn special attention to it as well as of that Latin dress which would have facilitated an English translation It is well known moreover that Luther formed a most humble estimate of his own writings and was uniformly reluctant to collect his works in volumes or bestow upon them any editorial care He seemed perfectly willing to have them sink to oblivion and could not be persuaded by the most urgent representations to do anything which might rescue them from such a fate Besides it is to be noted that a perusal of this volume especially would soon satisfy the reader that after the accession of Queen Elizabeth to the throne it stood little chance of securing the necessary approval or imprimatur of an English bishop Yet the work is one of no little historical as well as antiquarian interest It has done its part in one of the greatest intellectual and religious conflicts of the world It is the sword that a giant wielded and that has done execution on a broad field In the great armory of the Reformation writings scarcely another deserves a more conspicuous place It presents those views of the relative spheres of Divine and human authority which became prevalent wherever the cause of Reform advanced It unmasked popular errors rebuked ecclesiastical corruption and vindicated most effectively the simple doctrines of faith Here moreover we see Luther clad in the armor with which he boldly challenged the Papacy to a lifelong combat The man is before us girded for the battle and we see the weapons upon which he relies If one of those cannon balls with which English valor won the battle of Cressy the first in which the efficiency of the new invention was tested could be picked up there now and it could be ascertained that it did service in that famous battle it would be an object of no small interest at least to the antiquary but in regard to this treatise of Luther we know full well that Rome felt its visitation as something more terrible than a bombshell exploding beneath the dome of St Peter's Under the authority of Peter himself it demolished the very foundations of the throne upon which his pretended successors were seated and gave a most effective impulse to the onward movement of reform

The Word in and Out of Season Richard Viladesau, 1991 Cycle C takes most of its readings from the Gospel of Luke viewed as the gospel of liberation The author develops a theology of liberation for the First World liberation from sickness greed the power of evil sin hatred and mental narrowness and poverty

Life By The Way Michelle Dowdy, 2025-03-03 Life By The Way is a collection compiled from the author's blog of the same name The book also contains poems and prayers in addition to powerful scriptures throughout The themes which emerge are trust in the sovereignty of God and confidence in his Word as our source of all truth This book is written in bite sized pieces designed to give you food for thought for everyday living It is sometimes challenging sometimes humorous but always hopeful

Within Limits Lewis B. Smedes, 1978 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable An exploration of how ideal love selfless love can work within the limits of our ordinary lives Using the magnificent lines of 1 Corinthians 13 as his guide Smedes discusses the areas of life into which love must fit in order to do its work Includes discussion questions

The Yeast of Yerushalaim Jacob M. Van Zyl, 2007-10 THE YEAST OF YERUSHALAIM Jesus said that the Kingdom of God is like yeast As yeast is worked into the dough and changes its structure positively so the gospel is dispersed into societies and changes them from the inside To mix the yeast of the gospel into societies Jesus sent His disciples out to make disciples of all nations You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth Acts 1 8 Jerusalem is pronounced Yerushalaim in Hebrew In this city Jesus was crucified raised from the dead and ascended to heaven and to this city He will return In Jerusalem the Holy Spirit came into the hearts of believers inspiring them to spread the gospel worldwide The Acts and letters of the apostles show how the yeast spread throughout the Roman empire in the first century When the yeast of Yerushalaim has done its work Christ will return to renew heaven earth and Jerusalem

Parable of the 5 Wise and 5 Foolish Virgins by Lord Jesus Christ with Church Fathers in First Christianity and Protestant Reformers Martin Luther & John Wesley Jonathan Ramachandran, 2021-10-04 The Parable of the 5 Wise and 5 Foolish Virgins has been interpreted in many ways in Christianity Here we look at First Christianity and the oldest way of interpreting it via the Church Fathers which was maintained in Principle even in the First protestant Martin Luther s Writings likewise till even John Wesley the Co Founder of Methodism also held to it likewise as referring to Love God and Love your neighbour as yourself with Good Works in Action
