Chapter 21 The morning after I brought my 90 year old Dad home from the hospital Mom called me to say that he was not feeling at all well My nagging intuition insisted that I visit Dad and spend some private time with him Finding Dad awake and resting in his bed I struggled to find my voice Sitting beside him I asked SHow are you feeling this morning SOh I m so so he sighed as a tear rolled from his eye on to the pillow that cradled his head SReally tired of all of this and worried about your mother She s having a hard time with everything We stayed there in silence just being together for a few moments Holding his hand the heavy words finally left my mouth SYou know Dad you can trust me to be sure that Mom is okay I will take care of her no matter what He responded quietly SI know Studying and caressing my dad s hand I knew there was one more important conversation that the voice in my heart insisted upon SDad I know that this is getting to be really tough for you If staying here becomes too hard it s okay to let go During the following few weeks I watched my 89 year old Mom experience a renewed sense of purpose and increased strength as she doted on my dad and met his needs as best she could Some days were better than others Most nights were difficult when Dad s heart pain was significantly worse and his level of anxiety escalated Often my mom would pass the hours by reading to Dad Although her eyesight was clouding she still managed to read the newspaper column by column or inspirational short stories she found in the stack of magazines beside their bed Amazingly dawn nearly always brought ease and comfort for them both And so the nights and days continued REFLECTION Difficult subjects sometimes need to be discussed You might be asked by others to deliver bad news news of someone s death a life altering diagnosis or even the necessity for a change in residence Each conversation carries the potential for unleashed emotions My advice No matter how difficult or emotional don t leave words left unsaid People if capable of understanding deserve information Often they are much stronger than we realize Words are powerful They carry courage condemnation reassurance or permission Choose them wisely as your words may be the ones that bring freedom from pain or suffering It s tough but I know you can do it and if you listen to that voice inside you will know exactly the right time and the right words
