Love Eddie:

Henrietha Joyce M. Johnson, 2016-11-01 Ruthie often traveled on the subway with her best friend Jem from the church where they attend often She told me that the pastor had brainwashed her When the abused came to light to her pastor he called her stepfather and setup a counsel session for him but not for Ruthie Often times Ruthie traveled on the subway with her friend Jem and they discussed their abuses as Jem was abused also They share many interests in life Ruthie said thoughts of jumping across the train tracks often crossed her mind Jem talked her down at times One night she came home and had me cornered in my bedroom with her eyes blazing with fire as she sat me on the bed and yelled at me Why didn t you come over to my house and save me from the abuse I was waiting for someone to save me I can still smell the scent of Jason on me Night after night and Sunday after Sunday when he came home from church he had me as his sex slave Grandma you said you felt in your mind something was not right so why didn t you come and kick the door down and find out what was going on But my dear I did call the Children s Aid I told them what you said that you were sleeping in the closet at one time and they came and visited They called me and told me all was good in the home There was nothing else I could have done She left that night with her friend and three days later I heard from her that she is in British Colombia They took the bus She said if she hadn t left the province she would have jumped the subway track As you know Joanna there is a finished rooftop on my building Many times whenever Ruthie comes home she would go to the rooftop even before she goes to bed She said she finds peace and comfort there She felt like God was up there waiting to talk and comfort her Is domestic work really for black women It seems that way Whenever some white person or others meet you and talk about work it seems they are waiting for you to say that this is the job you are doing

Blood of Beelzebub James Seymour, 2023-08-20 On Valentine s Day 1945 the gruesome murder of a crippled hedgecutter Charles Walton shocked the townspeople of Stratford upon Avon With its simmering links to Satanic ritual the murder remains a mystery one of Scotland Yard s rare cold cases a crime as relevant today as it was eighty years ago On a cold mist shrouded February evening the 74 year old Charles Walton was found on the slopes of Meon Hill in the rural parish of Upper Quinton Warwickshire He had been impaled to the hard earth by a pitchfork driven through his neck Walton s attacker had bludgeoned him with his own stick then cut his throat with a slash hook According to press reports the sign of the cross had been carved into the laborer s neck Required to solve this difficult crime Alec Spooner the local Warwickshire head of C I D joins forces with London s crime fighter Robert Fabian to determine the murderer s identity and whereabouts They soon discovers signals indicating the possible influence of witchcraft or paranormal activity Reluctant to reveal to Fabian that he wants to dig deeper into these heretical theories Alec can't ignore others who want his help to reveal the unknown forces believed to cause the death of Edith's dear uncle Charles. When the highly desirable medium Sam Zawulich, an early advocate of Charles, attempts to make contact with him on the other side, she discovers she can't succeed without Alec Spooner's help. As most of his other conventional attempts to find the killer fail, Alec weakens and agrees to help Sam convene with Charles' spirit. Unfortunately, the communion of the living and the dead does not go according to plan, and further death complicates any rightful conclusion to the matter. Spooner, unable to win over Sam and resigned to losing his case, can only find satisfaction in the knowledge that his book about the investigation may help others to finally find the real killer after he is gone. In the meantime, Alec and Sam reveal countless inequities in a system of justice still beholden to money and ironclad tradition.

Psychotherapy of Character: The Play of Consciousness in the Theater of the Brain Robert A. Berezin, 2015-06-18

Eddie's mother was up on a ladder cleaning the kitchen ceiling when her water broke. She was annoyed at the interruption and the mess. Contemporary psychiatry has fallen under the sway of biological reductionism where our patients do not receive proper care. They are treated primarily or exclusively with psychoactive drugs. The result has been a pharmaceutical epidemic with psychiatric drug sales topping 70 billion a year. Pharmaceutical psychiatry ignores the complexities of the human condition as if the agency of human suffering can be cured by a pill. Eddie never really enjoyed swimming; he couldn't stop water from pouring into his nose and sinuses. It didn't occur to him to tell his counselors; never mind his parents where he could have gotten nose clips. It didn't occur to him that anyone would be responsive to his needs.

In Psychotherapy of Character, Dr. Berezin presents a much-needed alternative to the prevailing doctrine, one that is grounded in an understanding of human nature. Suffering is not a brain problem; it is a human problem. He illuminates the practice and effectiveness of psychotherapy through the story of his patient Eddie. Eddie's complicated inner life, varied experiences, and ultimate breakthrough stand in contrast to the destructive and false promises of a magical cure. He introduces a new and inclusive paradigm of consciousness for the twenty-first century. On the surface, he lived a successful college life. Eddie was due to graduate with honors and was accepted into a prestigious PhD program in biology. All the while, he felt alone and dead inside. No one really knew him.

The Dead Make No Mark Mark Atley, 2024-12-19

Detective Valdez will stop at nothing to bring a killer to justice, even if it means losing a part of himself. With the informant and his wife dying, the detective is in a race against time. He's in pursuit of Kade Carradine, the man who murdered the informant in a bid to keep them quiet. Valdez recruits OHP Trooper Barbara Jones, who is eager to redeem herself after Kade steals her police cruiser and causes her suspension.
