Love Meets Wisdom:

Love meets wisdom Aloysius Pieris, 1996      The New Comparative Theology Francis X. Clooney, S.J., 2010-06-03 This book is an extended critical reflection on the state of interreligious dialogue in its modern version While there has been some important writing in the field of comparative theology there has been no extended critical reflection on the state of the discipline in its modern version its strengths and problematic areas as it grows as a serious theological and scholarly discipline This work of young scholars in conversation with one another remedies this lack by as it were taking the discipline apart and putting it back together again The volume seeks to understand how to learn from multiple religions in a way that is truly open to those religions on their own terms while yet being rooted in the traditions that we bring to our interreligious study

The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene, 2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr's pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert's word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene's call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love

Riches Max L. Stackhouse, Lalsangkima Pachuau, 2007      Sophia Christopher Pramuk, 2009-10-01 While numerous studies have celebrated Thomas Merton's witness as an interfaith pioneer poet and peacemaker there have been few systematic treatments of his Christology as such and no sustained exploration to date of his relationship to the Russian Sophia tradition This book looks to Thomas Merton as a classic theologian of the Christian tradition from East to West and offers an interpretation of his mature Christology with special attention to his remarkable prose poem of 1962 Hagia Sophia Bringing Merton's mystical prophetic Vision fully into dialogue with contemporary Christology Russian sophiology and Zen as well as figures such as John Henry Newman and Abraham Joshua Heschel the author carefully but boldly builds the case that Sophia the same theological eros that animated Merton's religious imagination in a period of tremendous fragmentation and violence might infuse new vitality into our own A study of uncommon depth and scope inspired throughout by Merton's extraordinary catholicity Christopher Pramuk PhD is assistant professor of theology at Xavier University in Cincinnati Ohio He is the author of two books and numerous essays and the recipient of the Catholic Theological Society of America's 2009 Catherine Mowry LaCugna Award

Buddhist Christianity Ross Thompson, 2010-08-27 It is possible to be a Christian Buddhist in the context of a universal belief that sits fairly lightly on both traditions Ross Thompson takes especially seriously the aspects of each faith that seem incompatible with the other no God and no soul in Buddhism for example and the need for grace and the historical atonement on the cross in Christianity Buddhist Christianity can be no bland blend of the tamer aspects of both faiths but must result from a wrestling of the seeming incompatibles allowing each faith to shake the other to its very foundations The author traces his personal journey through which his need for both faiths became painfully apparent He explores the Buddha and Jesus through their teachings and the varied communities that flow from them investigating their different understandings of suffering and wrong self and liberation meditation and prayer cosmology and God or not He concludes with a bold commitment to both faiths

The Mission and Death of Jesus in Islam and Christianity A. H. Mathias Zahniser, 2017-09-15 The common wisdom is that Christians and Muslims should dialogue only about what they agree on This book takes a different approach As the author observes If we focus only on our common ground we will miss some of the motivating force of our traditions because that force derives not only from what we hold in common but also from those convictions that keep us apart

Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss,2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi s entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia

Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb,Mark A. Lamport,2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue
