Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1949. Running Crazy - Imagine Running a Marathon. Now Imagine Running Over 100 of Them. Incredible True Stories from the World's Most Fanatical Runners. Helen Summer, 2012-03-05. Pheidippides did it once and became a legend. Brian Mills did it over 800 times, but you might be forgiven for not knowing who he is. He is a runner, and it is the marathon, all 26 miles and 385 yards of it, and for some people, once is not enough. Brian Mills is rumoured to have a butterfly tattoo for each of his 800 plus efforts. And Brian is not the only one who has notched up three digits of gruelling athletic endeavour. The 100 Marathon Club, also known as the Hell's Angels of Running and Running Sluts, running one race whilst thinking of another, is growing in number every year. This is a club with no prejudices and only one prerequisite for membership: the completion of 100 marathons. It is full of colourful, contrasting characters with idiosyncratic personalities and diverse lifestyles. They make up a gargantuan melting pot of humanity linked by one common desire: to run and run and run. But who would want to run 100 marathons or more? And why? How do they find the time, the money, the energy? Are they crazy? Find out by reading their stories. Some will make you laugh, others will make you cry, some may even inspire you to run a marathon. Believe it or not, these are ordinary, everyday people like you. Although when you have finished laughing and crying, you may still not be sure whether they are crazy or passionate. But you, as they do when they run, will have a lot of fun along the way.

On The Trail Of Negro Folk-Songs Dorothy Scarborough, 2022-06-02. How often have I overheard alluring snatches of song, only to be baffled by denial when I asked for more? Kindly black faces smile indulgently, as at the vagaries of an imaginative child, when I persist in pleading for the rest. Nawm honey, I was and am and am singing nothing, nothing at all. How often have I been tricked into enthusiasm over the promise of folk songs, only to hear age-worn phonograph records, but perhaps so changed and worked upon by usage that they could possibly claim to be folk songs after all, or Broadway echoes or conventional songs by white authors. Yet cajolements might be in vain, even though all the time I knew, by the uncanny instinct of folklorists, that there were folk songs there. And even when you get a song started when you are listening with your heart in your ear and the greed of the folklorist in your eye, you may lose out. If you seem too much interested, the song retreats, draws in like a turtle and its head, and no amount of coaxing will make it venture back. And there is something positively fatal about a pencil. Songs seem to be afraid of lead poisoning. Or perhaps the pencil is secretly attached by a cord a vocal cord to the singer and s tongue It must be so for otherwise why has it so often happened that when I distrustful of my tricky memory to hold a precious song have sneaked a pencil out to take notes the tongue has suddenly jerked back and refused to wag again Yet that is not always the case for sometimes the knowledge that his song is being written down inspires a bard with more respect for it and he gives it freely Unstoppable Christine Caine,2014-08-26 Ready or not you are in the run of your life Whether you run like lightning or crawl at a snail s pace God has chosen you to run the race set before you His word calls to you Let us throw off everything that hinders let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us fixing our eyes on Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of faith Heb 12 1 2 Not an athlete Doesn t matter Still warming up The race has already begun Winded and limping Keep moving forward Stumbled or fallen You have not been disqualified Or maybe while running in perfect stride you ve hit daunting obstacles Do not give up Why Because this isn t a one person race It s a relay You are not alone but are part of a team assembled by God to achieve his purposes And God is unstoppable Fortunately God has not left you on our own to muddle through the race untrained His word and his story written into the lives of believers are filled with the wisdom to train you to successfully run the divine relay Discover how to receive your baton how to grasp firmly and carry forward all that God entrusts to you his uncompromising truth his piercing light his radical change his world transforming love And be trained in how to release what is no longer yours to carry so that every member of God s team can press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called us heavenward in Christ Jesus In Unstoppable best selling author global evangelist and human trafficking activist Christine Caine mesmerizes us with true stories and eternal principles that equip us to run the race we were born to win receiving and releasing the baton of faith in sync with our team the body of Christ God has plucked us out of eternity positioned us in time and given us gifts and talents to serve him in this generation to bring the light of Jesus Christ into a broken world Our race is now This is our time in history We ve been handed the baton of faith and asked to carry that light and dispel the darkness If we receive and pass on the baton in the divine relay we will be unstoppable Propagation and Distribution of Food Fishes ,1926 Annual Report of the Commissioner of Fisheries United States.
