M. Coetzee Olfa Belgacem, 2018-10-26 Asserting that Coetzee s representation of the body as subject to dismemberment counters the colonial representation of the other s body as exotic and erotically charged this study inspects the ambivalence pertaining to Coetzee s embodied representation of the other and reveals the risks that come with such contrapuntal reiteration Through the study of the narrative identity of the colonial other and her his body s representation the book also unveils the author s own authorial identity exposed through the repetitive narrative patterns and characterization choices

Erickson,2025-01-27 Gender Identity and Discourse Analysis Lia Litosseliti,Jane Sunderland,2002 This is a collection of work by researchers in the area of gender and language It shows how a discourse approach to the study of gender and language can facilitate the study of the complex and subtle ways in which gender identities are represented constructed and contested through language Queer God de Amor Miguel H. Díaz,2022-09-13

Queer God de Amor explores the mystery of God and the relationship between divine and human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan s mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God s erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John s own words as un no s qu an I know not what In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel D az continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology latinamente Shame Matters Orit Badouk

Teaching, Friendship and Humanity Nuraan Davids, Yusef Waghid, 2020-08-27 This book extends liberal understandings in and about democratic citizenship education in relation to university pedagogy more specifically higher teaching and learning The authors' argument is in defence of cultivating humanity through higher educational encounters on the basis of virtues that connect with the idea of love Unlike romantic and erotic love the book examines love in relation to educational encounters whereby humans or citizens can engage autonomously deliberatively and responsibly yet lovingly The rationale for focussing on the notion of philia love in educational encounters the authors argue is that doing so allows our current understandings of such encounters to be expanded beyond mere talk of reasonable engagements autonomous action deliberative iterations and simple action toward emotive enactments that could enhance human relations in educational encounters
