Medium Or Message Language And Faith In Ethnic Churches:

Medium Or Message? Anya Woods, 2004-01-01 What is the role of language in ethnic churches This new and much needed account of the Australian experience examines the issues faced by sixteen congregations together representing different periods of Australia's migration history as well as different languages cultural backgrounds and Christian denominations It brings to light a large range of experiences found in ethnic churches and considers the impact of Protestant Catholic and Orthodox traditions on the role of language Special reference is made to the tensions that can occur due to language shift and cross generational differences in language preference The concept of language religion ideology is developed to describe the nature of the relationship between language and religion which is exhibited by a denomination with far reaching implications for multilingual and multicultural societies The Message Or the Medium? Anya Victoria Woods, Monash University. Department of Linguistics, 2000 Faith and Ethnicity International Reformed Theological Institute. International Conference, 2002 Contributions to the Fourth International Conference of the IRTI held in Princeton N J in 2001 Intercultural Church Safwat Marzouk, 2019-10-01 Safwat Marzouk offers a biblical vision for what it means to be an intercultural church one that fosters just diversity integrates different cultural articulations of faith and worship and embodies an alternative to the politics of assimilation and segregation A church that fosters intercultural identity learns how to embrace and celebrate difference which in turn enriches its worship and ministry While the church in North America might see migration as an opportunity to serve God's kingdom by showing hospitality to the migrant and the alien migration offers the church an opportunity to renew itself by rediscovering the biblical vision of the church as a diverse community This biblical vision views cultural linguistic racial and ethnic differences as gifts from God that can enrich the church's worship deepen the sense of fellowship in the church and broaden the church's witness to God's reconciling mission in the world Today's church faces the challenge of what it means to be church in the light of the ever growing diversity of the population This may entail advocacy work on behalf of the undocumented asylum seekers and refugees but the church also faces the question of how to welcome the stranger the migrant and the refugee into the heart of the worshipping community This may mean changing worship leadership or ministry styles to embrace diverse communities in the church's neighborhood Marzouk surveys numerous biblical texts from the early ancestor stories of Israel to the Prophets to the Gospels and Acts the letters of Paul and Revelation The stories introduce themes of welcoming strangers living as aliens playing host to outsiders discovering true worship and seeking common language for expressing faith Discussion questions are provided to encourage conversation on this complex and important topic Inclusive Language in the Church Nancy A. Hardesty, 1987-01-01 Inclusive Language in the Church is a good introduction to questions about language use today that fairly addresses the issues of the language debate Nancy Hardesty sets out to convince us that inclusive language is appropriate in Christian theology and worship The Message is the Medium Irving I. Zaretsky, 1969 The Language of Faith Samuel

Laeuchli,1965
