Peace, Mommy, Peace , Peace Timecalendar Fani Bhusan Das,2009-12 The book is about a dream of mankind the dream to live in peacetime After many conflicts and wars in 1901 the humans initiated actions to materialize the dream But unfortunately the dream is still a dream after more than one hundred years Time is nothing but realizing things in succession and is a condition and cause of conditions Peace time is a mental phenomena and its measuring system is derived from functioning of solar system and cosmological units The dream is to promulgate 28 days 13 months moon civil calendar which is a perfect rational uniform regular and harmonious time calendar This provides appropriate impulses to human minds for peaceful responses and to create a peace time culture The book designs the Peace Calendar with names of 13 months of the year each month promoting different moral values as components of Peace to mould the human minds towards peacetime The book also highlights the present problem of violence terror and meltdowns in economic social and environmental sectors in each of the 13 months The UN is urged upon to take quick decision for fulfillment of the dream to save the humanity from large scale destruction and to switch over from the present miserable time to peace time by 2012 13 the cut off year for the beginning of holocaust in human civilization Daughters of Rizpah Sharon A. Buttry,Daniel L. Buttry,2020-10-13 Trauma recovery and healing get a lot of attention these days but in situations of war and violence trauma is also a social experience set within the larger conflict context The authors examine an ancient biblical story full of violence and trauma that makes most readers turn the page quickly The reader is invited instead to sit with the story listen to the voices of the characters and feel the full range of their emotions There is much to be learned through the story that offers insight for trauma healing and reconciliation and motivation for deep and abiding social change The biblical story becomes a doorway into a journey of discovery about traumatized people specifically women who choose not to remain as victims Instead they rise up in transformative nonviolent action The authors lift up the Rizpah story and contemporary stories of Daughters of Rizpah from around the world to inspire hope amid the traumatizing turmoil of the twenty first century Peace Studies between Tradition and Innovation Randall Amster,Edmund Pries,2015-02-05 The field of peace and conflict studies is rich in secular and faith traditions At the same time as a relatively new and interdisciplinary field it is ripe with innovation This volume the first in the series Peace Studies Edges and Innovations edited by Michael Minch and Laura Finley of the Peace and Justice Studies Association PJSA is edited by top Canadian and US scholars in the field and captures both those traditions and innovations focusing on enduring questions organizing and activism peace pedagogy and practical applications From the historical focus on disarmament ending warfare and reducing militarism to the civil rights women s rights and environmental movements peace activists and pedagogues have long been important agents of social change Authored by US and Canadian academics educators and activists the chapters in this book demonstrate how scholars and practitioners in the field are using the important knowledge skills and values of their foremothers and forefathers to address new issues integrate new
