Pornography Marxism Feminism And The Future Of Sexuality:

Pornography Alan Soble, 1986 Porn Studies Linda Williams, 2004 In her pioneering book Hard Core Linda Williams put moving image pornography on the map of contemporary scholarship with her analysis of the most popular and enduring of all film and video genres Now fifteen years later she showcases the next generation of critical thinking about pornography and signals new directions for study and teaching Porn Studies resists the tendency to situate pornography as the outer limit of what can be studied and discussed With revenues totaling between ten and fourteen billion dollars annually more than the combined revenues of professional football basketball and baseball visual hard core pornography is a central feature of American popular culture It is time Williams contends for scholars to recognize this and give pornography a serious and extended analysis The essays in this volume move beyond feminist debates and distinctions between a good erotica and a bad hard core Contributors examine varieties of pornography from the tradition of the soft core pin up through the contemporary hard core tradition of straight gay and lesbian videos and dvds to the burgeoning phenomenon of pornography on the Internet They explore as examples of the genre individual works as divergent as The Starr Report the pirated Tommy Lee Pamela Anderson honeymoon video and explicit Japanese ladies comics consumed by women They also probe difficult issues such as the sexualization of race and class and the relationship of pornography to the avant garde To take pornography seriously as an object of analysis also means teaching it Porn Studies thus includes a useful annotated bibliography of readings and archival sources important to the study of pornography as a cultural form Contributors Heather Butler Rich Cante Jake Gerli Minette Hillyer Nguyen Tan Hoang Despina Kakoudaki Franklin Melendez Ara Osterweil Zabet Patterson Constance Penley Angelo Restivo Eric Schaefer Michael Sicinski Deborah Shamoan Maria St John Tom Waugh Linda Williams

Pornography, Sex, and Feminism Alan Soble, 2011-02 In this unabashed defense of pornography from a utilitarian hedonist perspective philosopher Alan Soble strongly rebuts both feminist and conservative critics Soble demonstrates that neither conservative nor feminist critics of pornography show much acquaintance with the genre they criticize This suggests that purely political motives underlie their critiques instead of reasoned objective arguments based on thorough empirical research Soble also faults critics of pornography for their failure of empathy they refuse to see pornographic images from the various perspectives of their viewers In approaching these images literally detractors promulgate the worst possible interpretation of pornography Further they do not do justice to the social and psychological research about pornography and its purported harms Conservatives and feminists manufacture their case against pornography and its consumers based on oversimplified interpretations of the images and a poor understanding of scientific studies This sardonic and well reasoned critique of feminist and conservative moral outrage over pornography is sure to be controversial The Philosophy of Sex Raja Halwani, Jacob M. Held, Natasha McKeever, Alan Soble, 2022-02-28 With twenty five essays seven of which are new to the eighth edition this best selling volume examines the nature morality and social meanings of contemporary sexual phenomena

Topics include sexual desire and activity masturbation Sexual orientation asexuality transgender issues Zoophilia rape casual sex and promiscuity love and sex polyamory sexual consent sexual perversion sexual ethics objectification BDSM sex and technology sex and race and sex work Updated and new discussion questions offer students starting points for debate in both the classroom and the bedroom

Hollywood v. Hard Core Jon Lewis, 2002-09-01 A tale of censorship and regulation at the heart of the modern film industry In 1972 The Godfather and Deep Throat were the two most popular films in the country One a major Hollywood studio production the other an independently made skin flick At that moment Jon Lewis asserts the fate of the American film industry hung in the balance Spanning the 20th century Hollywood v Hard Core weaves a gripping tale of censorship and regulation Since the industry's infancy film producers and distributors have publicly regarded ratings codes as a necessary evil Hollywood regulates itself we have been told to prevent the government from doing it for them But Lewis argues that the studios self regulate because they are convinced it is good for business and that censorship codes and regulations are a crucial part of what binds the various competing agencies in the film business together Yet between 1968 and 1973 Hollywood films were faltering at the box office and the major studios were in deep trouble Hollywood's principal competition came from a body of independently produced and distributed films from foreign art house film Last Tango in Paris to hard core pornography like Behind the Green Door that were at once disreputable and for a moment at least irresistible even chic In response Hollywood imposed the industry wide MPAA film rating system the origins of the G PG and R designations we have today that pushed sexually explicit films outside the mainstream and a series of Supreme Court decisions all but outlawed the theatrical exhibition of hard core pornographic films Together these events allowed Hollywood to consolidate its iron grip over what films got made and where they were shown thus saving it from financial ruin

Transgressions of Reading Robert D. Newman, 1993 It is often claimed that we know ourselves and the world through narratives In this book Robert D Newman portrays narrative engagement as a process grounded in psychoanalytic theory to explain how readers or listeners or viewers manage to engage with specific narratives and derive from them a personal experience Newman describes this psychodrama of narrative engagement as that of exile and return an experience in which narrative becomes a type of homeland beckoning and elusive endlessly defining and disrupting the borders of a reader's identity Within this paradigm he considers a fascinating variety of narrative texts from the Jim Jones episode in Guyana to Freud's repression of personal history in his story of Moses from a surrealist collage novel by Max Ernst to the horror films of Alfred Hitchcock from the works of James Joyce Ariel Dorfman Milan Kundera and D M Thomas to the tales of abjection in pornography Transgressions of Reading is itself an engaging work as interesting for its provocative readings of particular works as for its theoretical insights It will appeal to readers from all fields in which narrative plays a crucial role in the study of film and art modern and contemporary literature popular culture and feminist psychoanalytic and reader response theory Christians, Feminists, and the Culture of Pornography Arthur J. Mielke, 1995 In this pioneering study in religion and culture Mielke acknowledges the power that pornographic images continue to assert in a culture whose conscious intention is to deny their attraction Despite efforts by Christians and feminists alike to radically alter the sexual agenda in the direction of a more tender and respectful eroticism much of contemporary America continues its sexual odyssey with unrepentant enthusiasm and with an increasing interest in overt sexual imagery Mielke's unique analysis brings together a wide range of sources contemporary as well as historical Christianity sex therapy secular feminism contemporary psychoanalysis and behavioral science research studies in an attempt to explain the prevalence of

 Taste for Brown Sugar Mireille Miller-Young, 2014-12-08 A Taste for Brown Sugar boldly takes on representations of black women's sexuality in the porn industry It is based on Mireille Miller Young's extensive archival research and her interviews with dozens of women who have worked in the adult entertainment industry since the 1980s The women share their thoughts about desire and eroticism black women's sexuality and representation and ambition and the need to make ends meet Miller Young documents their interventions into the complicated history of black women's sexuality looking at individual choices however small a costume a gesture an improvised line as small acts of resistance of what she calls illicit eroticism Building on the work of other black feminist theorists and contributing to the field of sex work studies she seeks to expand discussion of Violence is about how the systematic application of some basic principles of applied ethics yields some surprising and very unpopular results In particular Stephen Kershner investigates three areas sex discrimination and violence In his discussion of sex he concludes that adult child sex is not always wrong and that it is not clear that watching rape pornography is bad for the viewer When discussing discrimination Kershner argues for the following startling conclusions persons of different races on average differ in their value professional schools may and probably should discriminate against women and equal opportunity is not worth pursuing In his discussion of violence he contends that in some cases governments are morally permitted to use torture in order to interrogate suspected terrorists and may assassinate foreign leaders These controversial conclusions will no doubt spur animated and thoughtful discussion amongst readers Knockin' on Heaven's Door
