Return To The Father:

Return to the Father Carlo Maria Martini,1999 Cardinal Martini addresses the problem of recognizing and yielding our hearts to God the Father in contemporary society and argues that life has meaning only when we see it as a return to the Father The Return to the Father. Sermons on a Part of the Parable of the Prodigal Son Thomas Hancock,1873 surroundings including among the region's Aboriginal peoples. A special chapter on the missionary work of Kornelius Isaak, the author's older brother, is also included in the book. Kornelius' early death by the spear of an Ayoreo Indian warrior who subsequently became a Christian would forever mark the Isaak family. Though Helmut does most of the telling, it is a family story retold by the children and grandchildren, integrating significant portions from Lester Isaak's own reflections on key occasions of Fernheim Colony's history. But the book is more than a family biography. This family story inevitably gives readers a significant window into the workings of Gemeinde church and colony, including their strengths and weaknesses. Moreover, the book insightfully and skillfully contextualizes the story of these migrants within the larger 20th-century history. The Isaak family is to be commended for making this remarkable story of their family and larger community available to the wider Mennonite world and beyond.

Dreams of the Son Tawanda Chingombe, 2017-06-07. The story focuses on the protagonist Mwana Mutota, who is a descendant of an ancient bloodline of kings of the Great Stone Empire. The son is in constant conflict with his conscious and subconscious mind, since in his dreams he finds solace and peace, and this is embodied in the first scene, "The Castle in the Sky." This is unlike when he awakens and finds life futile and existential, as evidenced by the second scene, "Return to the Earth Realm." Dreams therefore present the highest form of existence, as one is in their truest form and bound by no rules, sin, or flesh, and present the only peace in the protagonist's life. Life therefore revolves around the conflict of the internal, the soul, that is only free in dreams, and the external, the body, that is trapped on earth, that drives the protagonist to the brink of insanity as the plot unfolds. The Great Stone Empire presents an empire that, through colonialism and corruption, is economically and socially depleted to the point of widespread unemployment and poverty. Mwana Mutota, rather than "The Son" as he prefers to call himself, on the request of Chaminuka, the guardian spirit of Nubian empires, is crowned king under the wings of the premiere of the empire, the last defiant Nubian leader against the west. The underlying battle of the story is of the sons of light versus the sons of darkness, a story that began from the dawn of time and is still ongoing. This is embodied in Mwana Mutota, the son of light, and his battle with Adam, the son of darkness, the deadly assassin hell-bent on ending Mwana's life. Gladys is Mwana Mutota's love, and yet they have not seen in each other in years. The platonic relationship presents the struggle of pure love in a corrupted world, and the desire to once more be together is Mwana's ultimate hope in life. Gladys is the descendant of the Mojaji queen, who in a past life was married to the Mutota king, and they were separated through conspiracy and treachery. Gladys, Mojaji, and Mwana Mutota therefore represent mediums of the greatest spirit of the empire, which is Chaminuka, and form part of his trinity, and their reuniting in the Earth realm represents a return to a lost virtue in the universe of the highest form which is love The last scene is called Return to Eden as it captures a pure and lost Nubian love as the bodies and souls of the Mutota and Mojaji king and queen once more reunite A perfect harmony is restored in the universe and the two souls reunite in the spirit world They walk hand in hand in the full allure of a spiritual garden full of the beauty of nature and the two embrace in the earth realm And the story reaches an end for now Composition of California Shellmounds Edward Winslow Gifford,1916 The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Lactantius, [etc.], Apostolic teaching and constitutions, Homily, and Liturgies Alexander Roberts,Sir James Donaldson,Arthur Cleveland Coxe,Allan Menzies,1886 New Edition of the Babylonian Talmud: Section Jurisprudence (Damages), tract Baba Metzia (Middle gate) Michael Levi Rodkinson,1900 The Fall and Rise of the Republic Johann A. Fuchs,2019-04-15 The story is about an ex soldier who is called back to the Army for a project that does not involve military matters Before the project ends he is sent off to the fighting returning injured and loses his wife and finds companionship with another As the project ends politicians try to recruit the war hero to run for office The reluctant war hero is dragged into the presidential race which he does everything possible to lose with it ending with a major constitutional crisis
