Second Chambers:

Second Chambers Nicholas Baldwin, Donald Shell, 2013-01-11 Notwithstanding the fact that among the parliaments of the world 38 per cent have Second Chambers 67 out of 179 Second Chambers themselves have only rarely been the focus of attention from politicians and have almost totally been ignored by academics This work sets about examining them

Second Chambers Sir John Arthur Ransome Marriott, 1927 Federalism and Second Chambers Wilfried Swenden, 2004 The theory of comparative federalism asserts that federations require a second chamber for the representation of regional interests in central law making Yet there has been little systematic analysis of the contribution of second chambers in parliamentary federations to this task The main purpose of this book is to demonstrate to what extent the two strongest parliamentary second chambers the Australian Senate and the German Bundesrat are linked to the federal structures in which they are embedded The study analyzes the contribution of the members of these second chambers in advancing interests that are linked to the regional constituents whom they represent or to the collective fiscal or administrative interests of a regional government with whom they are associated The analysis underscores the largely executive character of intergovernmental relations in parliamentary federations a feature that corresponds with the composition of the German Bundesrat but not of the Australian Senate In the concluding chapter some preliminary observations are made as to whether our findings also generate interesting insights for the larger group of parliamentary second chambers in federal or quasi federal states such as the Belgian Spanish and Canadian Senates the UK House of Lords and the Indian Rajya Sabha The Contemporary House of Lords Meg Russell, 2013-07-11 Painting a detailed portrait of the House of Lords since reform removed most hereditary members in 1999 this book demonstrates the chamber's newly diverse membership and substantial policy impact in British politics It also places the Lords in a comparative context asks if it can be considered legitimate and examines the likelihood of reform Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States. Patent and Trademark Office, 2001 Canadian Federalism and Its Future Alain-G. Gagnon, Johanne Poirier, 2020-09-23 The time is ripe to revisit Canada's past and redress its historical wrongs Yet in our urgency to imagine roads to reconciliation with Indigenous peoples it is important to keep in sight the many other forms of diversity that Canadian federalism has historically been designed to accommodate or could also reflect more effectively Canadian Federalism and Its Future brings together international experts to assess four fundamental institutions bicameralism the judiciary as arbiter of the federal deal the electoral system and party politics and intergovernmental relations The contributors use comparative and critical lenses to appraise the repercussions of these four dimensions of Canadian federalism on key actors including member states constitutive units internal nations Indigenous peoples and linguistic minorities Pursuing the work of The Constitutions That Shaped Us 2015 and The Quebec Conference of 1864 2018 this third volume is a testimony to Canada's successes and failures in constitutional design Reflecting on the cultural pluralism inherent in this country Canadian Federalism and Its

Future offers thought provoking lessons for a world in search of concrete institutional solutions within and beyond the traditional nation state Specifications and Drawings of Patents Issued from the United States Patent Office

United States. Patent Office,1912 Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office United States. Patent Office,1919

Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office ,1905 Two Into One Lawrence D Longley,2019-03-22 Recent scholarship points to a new institutionalism just as recent political developments point to a trend toward democratization If institutions matter and if legislatures are the democratic institutions in which the voice of the people speaks then the organization of legislatures bi or unicameral has important consequences for democracy
