Jack A. Digliani PhD EdD

Second Guessing:

Mental Marie Hebert, 2024-06-10 Satan's influence over our thinking has become so invasive so commonplace and so prevalent that most people even Christians believe that stressful cynical thinking is normal We have bought into the lie of est la vie that's just life By accepting Satan's view of life as normal we have stopped fighting for control of our own minds By not asserting our No we have tacitly given our Yes to Satan controlling how we think about ourselves about others and about God In Mental Satanic Torments of the Mind Marie Hebert exposes the ways Satan cunningly distorts and manipulates our thinking in order to stymie us More important than revealing how Satan does this she offers counter offensive strategies for resisting and eliminating his influence Mental Satanic Torments of the Mind is a must read for anyone struggling to live a fulfilling life free of satanic influence

Modern Issues in Perception E.A. Geissler, 2000-04-01 The book deals with two focal issues 1 The structural rules according to which information is organized in perception Part I 2 The rules on how pieces of information are integrated and transformed into judgements Part II Included in Part I are theories on neural mechanisms and models linking perception and memory Part II refers to simple physical and complex semantic dimensions Antecedents in animal behaviour are explored too The book is intended for a broad readership it should stimulate research which will link topics that have been traditionally separated Features of the book are a synopsis of discrete structural and quantitative aspects of perception linking perception with higher cognition and memory an overview on new approaches and findings from East and West on perceptual organization and rules inherent to judgement the chapters are strongly interconnected and didactical in tone Introductions are designed to increase readability of the work
