Second Take Australian Filmmakers Talk:

Australian Cinema After Mabo Felicity Collins, Therese Davis, 2004-10-27 Publisher Description Herstories on Screen Kathleen Cummins, 2020-05-19 From the late 1970s into the early 1990s a generation of female filmmakers took aim at their home countries popular myths of the frontier Deeply influenced by second wave feminism and supported by hard won access to governmental and institutional funding and training their trailblazing films challenged traditionally male genres like the Western Instead of reinforcing the myths of nationhood often portrayed in such films invariably featuring a lone white male hero pitted against the savage and uncivilized native terrain these filmmakers constructed counternarratives centering on women and marginalized communities In place of rugged cowboys violently removing indigenous peoples to make the frontier safe for their virtuous wives and daughters these filmmakers told the stories of colonial and postcolonial societies from a female and or subaltern point of view Herstories on Screen is a transnational study of feature narrative films from Australia Canada the United States and New Zealand Aotearoa that deconstruct settler colonial myths Kathleen Cummins offers in depth readings of ten works by a diverse range of women filmmakers including Jane Campion Julie Dash Merata Mita Tracey Moffatt and Anne Wheeler She reveals how they skillfully deploy genre tropes and popular storytelling conventions in order to critique master narratives of feminine domesticity and purity and depict women and subaltern people performing acts of agency and resistance Cummins details the ways in which second wave feminist theory and aesthetics informed these filmmakers efforts to debunk idealized Anglo Saxon femininity and motherhood and lay bare gendered and sexual violence and colonial oppression Media Ethics, an Aboriginal Film and the Australian Film Commission Thomas Donovan, Brody T. Lorraine, 2002 This is a very strong and persuasive even compelling narrative Donovan s argument is clearly presented well documented and convincing to the reader Moreover the writer is able to demonstrate that this is a very important and significant issue far greater than the question of a single film being scuttled The relative merit of the film is not the central issue of the case but rather the question of whether the merit was fairly and openly determined by Australian Film Commission personnel and procedures Emeritus Professor Donald Shea College of Letters and Science Department of Political Science University of Wisconsin Milwaukee December 1998 The Cinema of Australia and New Zealand Geoff Mayer, Keith Beattie, 2007 From The Story of the Kelly Gang in 1906 to the Lord of the Rings trilogy Australia and New Zealand have made a unique impact on international cinema This book celebrates the commercially successful narrative feature films produced by these cultures as well as key documentaries shorts and independent films It also invokes issues involving national identity race history and the ability of two small film cultures to survive the economic and cultural threat of Hollywood Chapters on well known films and directors such as The Year of Living Dangerously Peter Weir 1982 The Piano Jane Campion 1993 Fellowship of the Ring Peter Jackson 2001 and Rabbit Proof Fence Philip Noyce 2002 are included with less popular but equally important films and filmmakers such as Jedda Charles Chauvel 1955 They re a Weird Mob
