Morality and Justice John-Stewart Gordon, 2009-05-16 This book is a collection of twelve essays devoted to Michael Boylan's important work in moral philosophy A Just Society The collection is thematically organized to mirror Boylan's own volume so the first half explores fundamental issues of justification in ethics while the second half focuses on issues involving ethical discourse social justice and the moral foundations of public policy In their critical and engaging essays the authors challenge many of the original and controversial arguments developed and defended by Boylan in his book and Boylan responds in a lengthy and philosophically rich reply The book will appeal both to philosophers working on the cutting edge of moral and political theory and to public policy practitioners working to make society more just Straw Man Arguments Scott Aikin, John Casey, 2022-02-10 This book analyses the straw man fallacy and its deployment in philosophical reasoning While commonly invoked in both academic dialogue and public discourse it has not until now received the attention it deserves as a rhetorical device Scott Aikin and John Casey propose that straw manning essentially consists in expressing distorted representations of one's critical interlocutor To this end the straw man comprises three dialectical forms and not only the one that is usually suggested the straw man the weak man and the hollow man Moreover they demonstrate that straw manning is unique among fallacies as it has no particular logical form in itself because it is an instance of inappropriate meta argument or argument about arguments They discuss the importance of the onlooking audience to the successful deployment of the straw man reasoning that the existence of an audience complicates the dialectical boundaries of argument Providing a lively provocative and thorough analysis of the straw man fallacy this book will appeal to postgraduates and researchers alike working in a range of fields including fallacies rhetoric argumentation theory and informal logic The Roeper School Don Ambrose, Bharath Sriraman, Tracy L.
