Second Vespers:

The Monteverdi Vespers of 1610 : Music, Context, Performance Jeffrey Kurtzman, 2000-01-06 This is a thorough going study of Monteverdi's Vespers the single most significant and most widely known musical print from before the time of J S Bach The author examines Monteverdi's Vespers from multiple perspectives combining his own research with all that is known and thought of the Vespers by other scholars The historical origin as well as the musical and liturgical context of the Vespers are surveyed similarly the controversial historiography of the Vespers in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries is scrutinized and evaluated A series of analytical chapters attempt to clarify Monteverdi's compositional process and the relationship between music and text in the light of recent research on modal and tonal aspects of early seventeenth century music The final section is devoted to thirteen chapters investigating performance practice issues of the early seventeenth century and their application to the Vespers including general and specific recommendations for performance where appropriate The book concludes with a series of informational appendices including the psalm cursus for Vespers of all major feasts in the liturgical calendar texts and structural outlines for the Vespers compositions based on a cantus firmus an analytical discography and bibliographies of seventeenth century musical and theoretical sources

The Roman Breviary Reformed by Order of the Holy Oecumenical Council of Trent Catholic Church, 1908 The Roman Breviary Catholic Church, 1908 Vesper-book: containing the complete order for vespers for the entire year, according to the Roman breviary ... with the order for the burial of the dead, and the rite of Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, 1850 Text, Liturgy, and Music in the Hispanic Rite Raquel Rojo Carrillo, 2021 This groundbreaking book offers the first detailed analysis of the textual liturgical and musical aspects of the vespertinus the chant genre most central to the Christian practices that shaped the religious and cultural landscape of medieval Iberia

The vespers; or, evening service of the Catholic Church, according to the Roman Breviary, in Lat. and Engl., arranged and corrected by C. Grant rev Charles Grant, 1835 How Christ Said the First Mass, Or, The Lord's Last Supper James Luke Meagher, 1908 The Life of St. Charles Borromeo, Cardinal Archbishop of Milan Giovanni Pietro Giussano, 1884 The Scottish magazine, and churchman's review, 1852

Medieval Manuscripts for Mass and Office Andrew Hughes, 1995-01-01 Many books discuss the theology and doctrine of the medieval liturgy there is no dearth of information on the history of the liturgy the structure and development of individual services and there is much discussion of specific texts chants and services No book at least in English has struggled with the difficulties of finding texts chants or other material in the liturgical manuscripts themselves until the publication of Medieval Manuscripts for Mass and Office in 1982 Encompassing a period of several centuries ca 1200 1500 this book provides solutions for such endeavours Although by this period the basic order and content of liturgical books were more or less standardized there existed hundreds of different methods of dealing with the internal organisation and the actual writing of the texts and chants on the page Generalization becomes problematic the use of any single source as a typical example for more than local detail is impossible Taking for granted the user's ability to read medieval scripts and some codicological knowledge Hughes begins with the elementary material without which the user could not proceed He describes the liturgical year season day service and the form of individual items such as responsory or lesson and mentions the many variants in terminology that are to be found in the sources The presentation of individual text and chant is discussed with an emphasis on the organisation of the individual column line and letter Hughes examines the hitherto unexplored means by which a hierarchy of initial and capital letters and their colours are used by the scribes and how this hierarchy can provide a means by which the modern researcher can navigate through the manuscripts Also described in great detail are the structure and contents of Breviaries Missals and the corresponding books with music This new edition updates the bibliography and the new preface by Hughes presents his recent thoughts about terminology and methods of liturgical abbreviation
