Tempting a King Isla Drake, 2021-02-12 Raising a child alone in a small town doesn't leave much time for dating At least that's what I tell myself when I wonder why I'm still single nearly a decade after my divorce It has nothing to do with the massive crush I've had on my boss for years Nothing whatsoever Never mind that Finn King is the one man in this town who's ever caught my eye He's also the one man in town who's totally off limits There's no way I can hook up with my boss I might be single boring and borderline desperate but that's a line I won't cross Not that Finn has ever given me any indication that he's interested He keeps things professional no matter how much I might wish otherwise So when a hot single guest at the inn where I work starts flirting with me I figure there's no harm in flirting back I know nothing will come of it It's just a little harmless teasing The last thing I expect is Finn's sudden anger I've never seen him like this If I didn't know better I'd say he's jealous But that can't be right I must be imagining things Seeing what I want to see Right But when Finn pulls me into his office one night I know I'm not imagining the look in his eyes or his surprising confession Did I say I wouldn't cross that line
