

Love's Secret

Never seek to tell thy love,
Love that never told can be;
For the gentle wind does move
Silently, invisibly.

I told my love, I told my love,
I told her all my heart;
Trembling, cold, in ghastly fears,
Ah! she did depart!

Soon as she was gone from me,
A traveler came by,
Silently, invisibly
He took her with a sigh.

William Blake

Poems and Prose Christina Rossetti, 2008-10-09 The mystery of Life the mystery Of Death I see Darkly as in a glass Christina Rossetti 1830-94 is perhaps the most contradictory of the great Victorian poets She writes of the world's beauty but fears that it may be deceptive even deadly She is a religious poet but much of her work is driven by uncertainty Her poems are restrained even secretive but they seek nothing less than the mystery of Life and Death This edition contains Rossetti's strongest and most distinctive work poetry including Goblin Market The Prince's Progress and the sonnet sequence Monna Innominata stories including the complete text of Maude devotional prose with nearly fifty entries from the reading diary Times Flies and personal letters Those poems which Rossetti published and those which she withheld from publication are here brought together in chronological order allowing the reader to observe her poetic trajectory This edition also records the major revisions made by Rossetti when preparing her poems for publication It brings together the fullest range of Rossetti's poetry and prose in one volume and is an indispensable introduction to this entrancing writer ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Faith in Poetry Michael D. Hurley, 2017-11-16 In this ambitious book Michael D Hurley explores how five great writers William Blake Alfred Tennyson Christina Rossetti Gerard Manley Hopkins and T S Eliot engaged their religious faith in poetry with a view to asking why they chose that literary form in the first place What did they believe poetry could say or do that other kinds of language or expression could not And how might poetry itself operate as a unique mode of believing These deep questions meet at the crossroads of poetics and metaphysics and the writers considered here offer different answers But these writers also collectively shed light on the interplay between literature and theology across the long nineteenth century at a time when the authority and practice of both was being fiercely reimagined

Martyrdom, Mysticism and Dissent Asghar Seyed-Gohrab, 2021-08-23 This book is the first extensive research on the role of poetry during the Iranian Revolution 1979 and the Iran Iraq War 1980 1988 How can poetry especially peaceful medieval Sufi poems be applied to exalt violence to present death as martyrdom and to process war traumas Examining poetry by both Islamic revolutionary and established dissident poets it demonstrates how poetry spurs people to action even leading them to sacrifice their lives The book's originality lies in fresh analyses of how themes such as martyrdom and violence and mystical themes such as love and wine are integrated in a vehemently political context while showing how Shiite ritual such as the pilgrimage to Mecca clash with Saudi Wahhabi appreciations A distinguishing quality of the book is its examination of how martyrdom was instilled in the minds of Iranians through poetry employing Sufi themes motifs and doctrines to justify death Such inculcation proved effective in mobilising people to the front ready to sacrifice their lives As such the book is a must for readers interested in Iranian culture and history in Sufi poetry in martyrdom and war poetry Those involved with Middle Eastern Studies Iranian Studies Literary Studies Political Philosophy and Religious Studies will benefit from this book From his own memories and expert research the author gives us a ravishing account of a poetry stained with blood violence and death His brilliantly layered analysis of modern Persian poetry shows how it integrates political and religious ideology and motivational propaganda with age old mystical themes for the most traumatic of times for Iran Alan Williams Research Professor of Iranian Studies University of Manchester When Asghar Seyed Gohrab a highly prolific academician publishes a new book you can be certain he has paid attention to an exciting and largely unexplored subject Martyrdom Mysticism and Dissent The Poetry of the 1979 Iranian Revolution and the Iran Iraq War 1980 1988 is no exception in the sense that he combines a few different cultural religious mystic and political aspects of Iranian life to present a vivid picture and thorough analysis of the development and effect of what became known as the revolutionary poetry of the late 1970s and early 1980s This time he has even enriched his narrative by inserting his voice into his analysis It is a thoughtful book and a fantastic read Professor Kamran Talattof University of Arizona
