Secret Trades Porous Borders Smuggling And States Along The Southeast Asian Frontier 1865 1915:

Secret Trades, Porous Borders Eric Tagliacozzo, Professor Eric Tagliacozzo, 2005 Over the course of the half century from 1865 to 1915 the British and Dutch delineated colonial spheres in the process creating new frontiers This book analyzes the development of these frontiers in Insular Southeast Asia as well as the accompanying smuggling activities of the opium traders currency runners and human traffickers who pierced such newly drawn borders with growing success The book presents a history of the evolution of this 3000 km frontier and then inquires into the smuggling of contraband who smuggled and why what routes were favored and how effectively the British and Dutch were able to enforce their economic moral and political will Examining the history of states and smugglers playing off one another within a hidden but powerful economy of forbidden cargoes the book also offers new insights into the modern political economies of Southeast Asia Knowing

Southeast Asian Subjects Laurie Jo Sears, 2007 The essays in Knowing Southeast Asian Subjects ask how the rising preponderance of scholarship from Southeast Asia is de centering Southeast Asian studies in the United States The contributions address recent transformations within the field and new directions for research pedagogy and institutional cooperation Smuggling Alan L. Karras, 2010 Exploring the history of smuggling around the world Alan L. Karras traces all aspects of this pervasive and enduring crime Through a compelling set of cases drawn from a rich array of historical and contemporary sources Karras shows how smuggling of every conceivable good h Land Derek Hall, 2013-04-03 Land is one of the world's most emotionally resonant resources and control over it is fundamental to almost all human activity From the local level to the global we are often in conflict over the ground beneath our feet But because human relationships to land are so complex it can be difficult to think them through in a unified way This path breaking book aims to change that by combining insights from multiple disciplines to develop a framework for understanding the geopolitics of land today Struggles over land argues Derek Hall relate to three basic principles its role as territory its status as property and the ways in which its use is regulated This timely introduction explores key dimensions of these themes including inter state wars over territory the efforts of non governmental organizations to protect property rights and environments in the global South and the land grabs attempted by contemporary corporations and governments Drawing on a wide range of cases and examples from the Afghanistan Pakistan border to the Canadian Arctic China's urban fringe to rural Honduras the book provides new ways of thinking about the political dynamics of land in the 21st century This richly detailed and authoritative guide will be of interest to students across the social sciences as well as anyone interested in current affairs and contemporary geopolitics

The Punjab Borderland Ilyas Chattha, 2022-06-16 Offers insights into how the new international boundary between India and Pakistan was made subverted and transformed Between Frontiers Noboru Ishikawa, 2010-03-15 A staple of postwar academic writing nationalism is a contentious and often unanalyzed abstraction It is generally treated as something imagined fashioned and disseminated as an idea located in the mind in printed matter on maps in symbols such as flags and anthems and in collective memory Between Frontiers restores the nation to the social field from which it has been abstracted by looking at how the concept shapes the existence of people in border zones where they live between nations Noboru Ishikawa grounds his discussion of border zones in materials gathered during two years of archival research and fieldwork relating to the boundary that separates Malaysian from Indonesian territory in western Borneo His book considers how the state maintains its national space and how people strategically situate themselves by their community nation and ethnic group designated as national territory Examining these issues in the context of concrete circumstances where a village boundary coincides with a national border allows him to delineate the dialectical relationship between nation state and borderland society both as history and as process Scholars across the humanities and social sciences will learn from this masterful linking of history and ethnography and of macro and micro perspectives Religion and Trade Francesca Trivellato, Leor Halevi, Cátia Antunes, 2014 This vibrant collected volume considers the question how exactly did the relationship between trade and religion develop historically Examining a wide range of commercial exchanges across religious boundaries around the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic and Indian Oceans during the second millennium it offers a variety of perspectives on this intriguing and surprisingly neglected subject Borderland Infrastructures Alessandro Rippa, 2025-10-01 Across the Chinese borderlands investments in large scale transnational infrastructure such as roads and special economic zones have increased exponentially over the past two decades Based on long term ethnographic research Borderland Infrastructures addresses a major contradiction at the heart of this fast paced development small scale traders have lost their historic strategic advantages under the growth of massive Chinese state investment and are now struggling to keep their businesses afloat Concurrently local ethnic minorities have become the target of radical resettlement projects securitization and tourism initiatives and have in many cases grown increasingly dependent on state subsidies At the juncture of anthropological explorations of the state border studies and research on transnational trade and infrastructure development Borderland Infrastructures provides new analytical tools to understand how state power is experienced mediated and enacted in Xinjiang and Yunnan In the process Rippa offers a rich and nuanced ethnography of life across China's peripheries Chinese Sojourners in Wartime Raj, 1942-45 Cao Yin, 2022 This book is about how the activities of the Chinese sojourners in wartime India caused great concerns to the British colonial regime and the Chinese Nationalist government alike and how these sojourners responded to the surveillance discipline and check imposed by the governments A Maritime Vietnam Tana Li, 2024-02-01 Despite its 3 000 kilometre coastline few people see Vietnam as a maritime country Here Li Tana presents a powerful new argument about Vietnamese history that key political changes resulted from the impact economic and otherwise of the sea This is a finely layered account covering the two millennia before colonisation that radically restructures how we understand the role of the maritime and trans regional in Vietnam's early history Drawing on exhaustive research of Chinese Vietnamese and Japanese sources Li reveals that it is only when viewed against the background of the sea that Vietnam's past can be properly understood. In contrast to traditional perceptions of an inward-looking society dominated by Chinese cultural influence, Vietnam was shaped by dynamic littoral economic and cultural contact.
