Secret Life Of Animals:

The Secret Life of Animals ,1999 The Secret Life of Animals Lorus Johnson Milne,1976 Animals and Other People Heather Keenleyside,2016-11-21 In Animals and Other People Heather Keenleyside argues for the central role of literary modes of knowledge in apprehending animal life Keenleyside focuses on writers who populate their poetry novels and children s stories with conspicuously figurative animals experiment with conventional genres like the beast fable and write the lives of mice as well as men From such writers including James Thomson Daniel Defoe Jonathan Swift Laurence Sterne Anna Letitia Barbauld and others she recovers a key insight about the representation of living beings when we think and write about animals we are never in the territory of strictly literal description relying solely on the evidence of our senses Indeed any description of animals involves personification of a sort if we understand personification not as a rhetorical ornament but as a fundamental part of our descriptive and conceptual repertoire essential for distinguishing living beings from things Throughout the book animals are characterized by a distinctive mode of agency and generality they are at once moving and being moved at once individual beings and generic or species figures every cat is also The Cat Animals thus become figures with which to think about key philosophical questions about the nature of human agency and of social and political community They also come into view as potential participants in that community as one sort of people among others Demonstrating the centrality of animals to an eighteenth century literary and philosophical tradition Animals and Other People also argues for the importance of this tradition to current discussions of what life is and how we might live together

Postcolonial Lack Gautam Basu Thakur,2020-03-16 Postcolonial Lack reconvenes dialogue between Lacanian psychoanalysis and postcolonial theory in order to expand the range of cultural analyses of the former and make the latter theoretically relevant to the demands of contemporary narratives of othering exclusion and cultural appropriation Seeking to resolve the mutual suspicion between the disciplines Gautam Basu Thakur draws out the connections existing between Lacan s teachings on subjectivity and otherness and writings of postcolonial and decolonial theorists such as Gayatri Spivak Frantz Fanon and Homi Bhabha By developing new readings of the marginalized other as radical impasse and pushing the envelope on neoliberal identity politics the book moves postcolonial studies away from the perennial topic of identity and difference and into examining the form and function of the other as excess surplus and or lack in colonial and postcolonial literature film and social discourse Looking at writings by Mahasweta Devi Amitav Ghosh Leila Aboulela Narayan Gangopadhyay Katherine Boo and films by Gillo Pontecorvo Clint Eastwood Ryan Coogler Black Panther and Tony Gatlif Basu Thakur highlights a new set of ethical and political considerations emerging as a direct result of this shift and stakes a fundamental rethinking of postcoloniality through what he calls the politics of ontological discordance The Afterlives of Animals Samuel J. M. M. Alberti,2011-09-20 In the quiet halls of the natural history museum there are some creatures still alive with stories whose personalities refuse to be relegated to the dusty corners of an exhibit The fame of these beasts during their lifetimes has given them an iconic status in death More than just museum specimens these animals have attained a second life as historical and cultural records This collection of essays from a broad array of contributors including anthropologists curators fine artists geographers historians and journalists comprises short biographies of a number of famous taxidermized animals Each essay traces the life death and museum afterlife of a specific creature illuminating the overlooked role of the dead beast in the modern human animal encounter through practices as disparate as hunting and zookeeping The contributors offer fresh examinations of the many levels at which humans engage with other animals especially those that function as both natural and cultural phenomena including Queen Charlotte s pet zebra Maharajah the elephant and Balto the sled dog among others Readers curious about the enduring fascination with animals who have attained these strange afterlives will be drawn to the individual narratives within each essay while learning more about the scientific cultural and museological contexts of each subject Ranging from autobiographical to analytical the contributors varying styles make this delightful book a true menagerie Contributors Samuel J M M Alberti Royal College of Surgeons Sophie Everest University of Manchester Kate Foster Michelle Henning University of the West of England Bristol Hayden Lorimer University of Glasgow Garry Marvin Roehampton University London Henry Nicholls Hannah Paddon Merle Patchett Christopher Plumb University of Manchester Rachel Poliquin Jeanne Robinson Glasgow Museums Mike Rutherford University of the West Indies Richard C Sabin Natural History Museum Richard Sutcliffe Glasgow Museums Geoffrey N Swinney University of Edinburgh
