Britain's Secret Defences Andrew Chatterton, 2024-01-05 The first full history of the highly trained and ruthless civilian volunteers secretly trained across Britain to be deployed in the case of a German invasion. The narrative surrounding Britain's anti-invasion forces has often centered on Dad's Army like characters running around with pitchforks on unpreparedness and sense of inevitability of invasion and defeat. The truth however is very different. Top secret highly trained and ruthless civilian volunteers were being recruited as early as the summer of 1940. Had the Germans attempted an invasion they would have been countered by saboteurs and guerrilla fighters emerging from secret bunkers and monitored by swathes of spies and observers who would have passed details on via runners, wireless operators and ATS women in disguised bunkers. Alongside these secret forces the Home Guard were also setting up their own guerrilla groups and SIS MI6 were setting up post-occupation groups of civilians including teenagers to act as sabotage cells, wireless operators and assassins had the Nazis taken control of the country. The civilians involved in these groups understood the need for absolute secrecy and their commitment to keeping quiet meant that most went to their grave without ever telling anyone of their role, not even their closest family members. There has been no official and little public recognition of what these dedicated men and women were willing to do for their country in its hour of need and after over 80 years of silence the time has come to highlight their remarkable role.

Secret Fleets Lynne Cairns, 2011-09-01 Contrary to what many Australians believe during 1942 Japanese submarines were active in Australian waters and Japanese spy planes made surveillance flights over our major cities With enemy submarines patrolling off the Western Australian coast Fremantle became an important international submarine base the largest in the Southern Hemisphere During the war Fremantle played host to over 170 Allied submarines with submarines of the United States British and Dutch navies making a total of 416 war patrols out of the port between March 1942 and August 1945 The secrecy surrounding the operation of the Fremantle submarine base meant that its existence was little known at the time and until now has been largely forgotten by history The Secret Sentry Matthew M. Aid, 2010-06-08 Presents a history of the agency from its inception in 1945 to its role in the Cold War to its controversial advisory position at the time of the Bush administration's search for weapons of mass destruction in Iraq shortly before the invasion of 2003 The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Secret War Billy G. Webb, 2010-09-13 If war really is an extension of politics by other means as Carl von Clausewitz declared back in 1827 then few wars have served as better examples than the Secret War in Laos from 1961 1975 A clandestine conflict fought in parallel with the Vietnam War the Laotian Secret War ostensibly set the United States Thailand and various Laotian factions against Ho Chi Minh's North Vietnamese Army NVA In practice the conflict was as much a civil war as an invasion and ultimately it devolved into a slow motion act of suicide on the part of the Lao nation itself The U S military and its Laotian Hmong allies led by the resourceful General Vang Pao made a disciplined effort to prosecute the war though from beginning to end that effort was steeped in self serving politics and hamstrung by factional infighting irrational decision making and self imposed constraints that ultimately hurt more than they helped Micromanagement by officers and clueless politicians far from the front was bad enough far worse was the corruption of the head butting Lao factions who seemed unable to see beyond their own immediate needs and certainly had no vision for a strong united Laos The so called Rightists Leftists and Neutralist factions simply could not wrap their heads around the concept that their only hope of survival lay in coming together against the relentless well equipped NVA In fact one faction the Pathet Lao repeatedly allied with the NVA against their own countrymen But the Americans and Vang Pao's Hmong those who repeatedly found themselves on the sharp end of the spear in the face of waffling lack of discipline and occasionally sheer cowardice on the part of their allies refused to give up until finally their political leadership turned their backs on them This is the story of those brave men and the civilians who helped them fight an increasingly painful and mismanaged war It was a war in which the political leaders involved proved conclusively that they had learned nothing from history or simply didn't care Through ineptitude and back room politicking the leadership of both Laos and the United States eventually gave Laos to the Communists who proceeded to crush the Lao people into the dust in the name of a morally bankrupt ideology that they themselves neither practiced nor truly believed in Billy G Webb lays out their story with both great precision and compassion in this lively well researched book outlining the events that led us into the morass of the Secret War and then detailing each bloody campaign of each bloody year In addition to following the key characters on the U S Laotian side especially the charismatic Vang Pao he peppers the story with tales of courageous individuals who fell victim to the NVA and the Pathet Lao and occasionally the stupidity incompetence and gutlessness of people they trusted Some survived to fight again but many of these men military and otherwise paid the ultimate sacrifice in their fight to keep Laos free Webb takes special care to showcase two organizations the brave Forward Air Controllers who called themselves the Ravens and Air America a civilian company run by the CIA that supported the military effort and aided the Lao populace whenever they were called upon Few people have ever heard of the Ravens those USAF and Army airmen who risked life and limb in tiny Cessna aircraft to locate targets for bombers and fighters to strike Air America is more famous due to the 1990 movie of the same name a film that unfairly maligned Air America as a parcel service for Laotian powerbrokers moving drugs and gold out of the country Webb sets the record emphatically straight That is not to say that such things weren't happening in Laos they were In hindsight it's easy to condemn the CIA and the U S military leadership for allowing the corruption to spread but as Nietzsche has pointed out when you look long in

A Tale of the Secret Saint (Light Novel) Vol. 3 Touya, chibi, 2022-06-02 Now back with the First Knight Brigade Fia heads to Sutherland with its lord Captain Cyril Fia remembers Sutherland fondly from her past life's memories and is excited to go but tension is high between the captain and his subjects Worse the people of Sutherland become convinced that Fia is the reincarnation of the Great Saint which she is of course but there's no way they could know that Now Fia will have to pretend that she's pretending to be the Great Saint all while keeping her true identity hidden from Captain Cyril and the other knights

Secret Green Beret Commandos in Cambodia LTC Fred S. Lindsey, 2012-11-12 We could call this book Special Operations Recon Mission Impossible A small group of highly trained resourceful US Special Forces SF men is asked to go in teams behind the enemy lines to gather intelligence on the North Vietnamese Army units that had infiltrated through Laos and Cambodia down the Ho Chi Minh trails to their secret bases inside the Cambodian border west of South Vietnam The covert reconnaissance teams of only two or three SF men with four or five experienced indigenous mercenaries each were tasked to go into enemy target areas by foot or helicopter insertion They could be 15 kilometers beyond any other friendly forces with no artillery support In sterile uniforms with no insignia or identification if they were killed or captured their government would deny their military connection The enemy had placed a price on their heads and had spies in their Top Secret headquarters known as SOG SOG had three identical recon ground units along the border areas This book tells the history of Command and Control Detachment South CCS The CCS volunteer warriors and its Air Partners the Army and Air Force helicopter transport and gunship crews who lived and fought together and sometimes died together This is the first published history of CCS as compiled by its last living commander some forty years after they were disbanded It tells of the struggles and intrigue involved in SOGs development as the modern day legacy of our modern Special Operations Commands Forbidden to tell of their experiences for over twenty years their After Action Reports destroyed even before they were declassified surviving veterans team together to tell how Recon men wounded averaged 100 percent and SOG became the most highly decorated unit in Vietnam and all were awarded the Presidential Unit Citation Investigation of Executive Agencies of the Government United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee to Investigate the Executive Agencies of the Government,1937
