Love, Law and Christian Life Vincent MacNamara,1988      Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell,2024-10-29 As one of the most widely adopted textbooks in the field Happiness and the Christian Moral Life introduces students to Christian ethics through the lens of happiness Drawing on classical and contemporary Christian sources Paul Wadell proposes that the heart of the moral life is not rules and obligations but our deep desire for happiness and fulfillment The fourth edition of this accessible and student friendly text has been revised and updated throughout It introduces Christian ethics with sensitivity towards readers who may not be Christian themselves After setting out the principal argument of the book in the opening chapter subsequent chapters explore the importance of narrative or story for Christian ethics a Christian understanding of the person and vocation the role of the virtues in our quest for happiness the centrality of justice in the moral life the place of friendship and community in a good and flourishing life a Christian theology of freedom how sin hinders one's growth in happiness the meaning and importance of conscience and a Christian understanding of love The fourth addition also includes new sections on several topics such as the Beatitudes forgiveness and reconciliation the social thought of Pope Francis the challenges of climate change and global warming recent thinking on gender and sexual ethics by theologian Bridget Burke Ravizza a politics of charity and racism and ongoing racial conflict This edition also features fresh global examples revised introductions to key thinkers and figures expanded treatment of the theological virtues and a list of key terms at the end of every chapter      Catholic Moral Theology and Social Ethics Christina Astorga,2013-12-01 Proposing a new method for moral theology Christina Astorga seeks to recast our understanding of the discipline by drawing from the faith vision of the entire theological enterprise including scripture dogmatic theology social ethics and spirituality      Ethics Padilla,1993      Ethics for the Health-care Professions'99 Edition , Conscience and Catholicism Robert J. Smith,1998 The understanding and use of conscience in Roman Catholicism has undergone evaluation within the broader efforts of the renewal of moral theology called for by Vatican II A review of the literature reveals that among contemporary Catholic moral theologians there are differences in the way conscience is understood and employed These differences are reflected in the distinct perspectives of D      Restoration & Renewal Joseph F. Natural Law and Moral Inquiry Robert P. George, 1998-03-01 Germain Grisez has been a leading voice in moral philosophy and theology since the Second Vatican Council In this book such major thinkers as John Finnis Ralph McInerny and William E May consider issues in ethics metaphysics and politics that have been central to Grisez s work Grisez s reconsideration of the philosophical foundations of Christian moral teaching seeking to eliminate both legalistic interpretation and theological dissent has won the support of a number of leading Catholic moralists In the past decade moreover many philosophers outside of Catholicism have weighed carefully Grisez s alternatives to theories that have long dominated secular moral philosophy This book presents a broad spectrum of viewpoints on subjects ranging from contraception to capital punishment and considers such controversies as the scriptural basis of Grisez s work his interpretations of Aquinas and his new natural law theory The collection includes not only contributions from Grisez s supporters but also from critics of his thought from proportionalist Edward Collins Vacek SJ to the neo Thomist Ralph McInerny A reply by Grisez written with Joseph M Boyle Jr addresses the issues and viewpoints expressed while an afterword by Russell Shaw reviews Grisez s pioneering work and conveys a vivid sense of the philosopher s personality As Grisez s influence grows this volume will serve as an important touchstone on his contributions to moral and political philosophy and theology

Teaching with Authority Richard R. Gaillardetz, 1997 This book faithfully represents the teaching of Roman Catholicism on the Church s doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the Church informed by Vatican II and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the Church today

The Foundations of Christian Bioethics Hugo Tristram Engelhardt, 2000 For decades Engelhardt has alluded to the ethics that binds moral friends While his Foundations of Bioethics explored the sparse ethics binding moral strangers this long awaited volume addresses the morality at the foundations of Christian bioethics The volume opens with an analysis of the marginalization of Christian bioethics in the 1970s and the irremedial shortcomings of secular ethics in general Drawing on the Christianity of the first millennium Engelhardt provides the ontological and epistemological foundations for a Christian bioethics that can remedy the onesidedness of a secular bioethics and supply the bases for a Christian bioethics The volume then addresses issues from abortion third party assisted reproduction and cloning to withholding and withdrawing treatment physician assisted suicide and euthanasia Practices such as free and informed consent are relocated within a traditional Christian morality Attention is also given to the allocation of scarce resources in health care and to the challenge of maintaining the Christian identity of physicians nurses patients and health care institutions in a culture that is now post Christian      The Encyclopædia Britannica: Edwardes-Evangelical Association,1910      Vision and Values Judith A. Dwyer,1999-08-27 A concise introduction to Christian ethics this book surveys the moral values of the Catholic tradition and applies them to contemporary issues Prominent authors address such topics as scriptural sources reverence for human life sexuality and intimacy family responsibilities the concept of peace in the modern world economics and Catholic higher education Vision and Values is both an overview of the major perspectives which inform moral decisions and a guide to how these principles interrelate It can help readers determine how to make complex moral judgments in a Christian context as it demonstrates the vitality of the Catholic theological tradition      Agape Gene H. Outka,1977-09-10 This study is the most comprehensive account to date of modern treatments of the love commandment Gene Outka examines the literature on agape from Nygren s Agape and Eros in 1930 Both Roman Catholic and Protestant writings are considered including those of D Arcy Niebuhr Ramsey Tillich and above all Karl Barth The first seven chapters focus on the principal treatments in the theological literature as they relate to major topics in ethical theory The last chapter explores further the basic normative content of agape and discusses some of the most characteristic problems The book is in my judgment the best recent work in religious ethics Outka brings together analytic moral philosophy and theological ethics providing a masterly survey of views and issues arising in the past forty years I can think of few books of interest to scholars in both philosophy and theology but Outka s is one Unlike some scholars who are at home in continental theology Outka is also at home in secular analytic philosophy he brings them together in a mutually illuminating way Donald Evans Outka has mastered this vast literature on love and has brought a critical and clarifying analysis to bear upon it This is a most important book on a most important subject and brings the whole discussion into a new phase John Macquarrie The first thing to be said about Outka s book quite simply is that it is excellent in fact it is probably the very best available book about contemporary Christian ethical theory The Humanities Association Review      The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,James Louis Garvin,1926      The Churchman ,1914      Traditional Christian Ethics David W. T. Brattston,2014 Volume One of Traditional Christian Ethics describes the terminology discusses popular approaches to ethical decision making today illustrates that the earliest Christians conducted themselves in accordance with a large number of specific moral rules states the method of this set of books for reconstructing the content of early Christian ethics law as attested before the devastating epidemic and mass apostasy of AD 249 251 gives reasons for regarding this as the terminal date and provides a guide to using the lists At a number of points this volume deals with objections to its theses Volume One also furnishes you with complete information as to where you can find and look up the ancient sources cited in translation Traditional Christian Ethics will help you solve problems in moral decision making when Scripture is unclear or silent You can solve them through its comprehensive itemized concordances of citations to precepts of Christian ethics from all translated ancient texts Its sources possess unassailable authority that cannot be fabricated and are persuasive among most Christian denominations Preachers and professional scholars will find them invaluable as a starting point in preparing their own sermons books articles and essays on specific points of ethics      The Social Teaching of the Christian Churches Ernst Troeltsch,1992-01-01 In this landmark work Ernst Troeltsch offers a history of Christian ethics This expansive volume relates Christian ethical ideas to the changing structures of church and society from the period of early Christianity to the end of the eighteenth century Troeltsch s classic work first published in 1931 continues to speak to the present condition of the church and culture The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors though reflection on classic works in the field      The Christian Union ,1878      Christian Ethics and Moral Values Albert D'Souza,2005
