The Handbook examines various modes of literary production such as fiction poetry and critical essays as distinct forms of expression that nonetheless are closely interrelated Attention is drawn to the idea of the bunjin as a person of letters and a more realistic assessment is provided of how writers have engaged with ideas not labelled a novelist or poet but a writer who may at one time or another choose to write in various forms. The book provides an overview of major authors and genres by situating them within broader themes that have defined the way writers have produced literature in modern Japan as well as how those works have been read and understood by different readers in different time periods The Routledge Handbook of Modern Japanese Literature draws from an international array of established experts in the field as well as promising young researchers.
