De Graaff, 2025-06-20

Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives Creating Resistances: Pastoral Care in a Postcolonial World Melinda McGarrah Sharp, 2019-10-01

Multiple forms of oppression injustice and violence today have roots in histories of colonialism This connection to the past feels familiar for some and less relevant for others Understanding and responding to these connections is more crucial than ever yet some resist rather than face this task directly Others resist oppressive postcolonial conditions Using intercultural stories and pastoral care scholarship this book charts pathways through five resistances not me not here not now not relevant not possible to awaken creative pastoral care in a postcolonial world McGarrah Sharp recommends practices that everyone can do believing in each other revisiting how histories are taught imagining more passable futures heeding prophetic poets and crossing borders with healthy boundaries Themes in Latin American Cinema Keith John Richards, 2020-03-20 This updated and expanded edition gives critical analyses of 23

Latin American films from the last 20 years including the addition of four films from Bolivia Explored throughout the text are seven crucial themes the indigenous image sexuality childhood female protagonists crime and corruption fratricidal wars and writers as characters Designed for general and scholarly interest as well as a guide for teachers of Hispanic culture or Latin American film and literature the book provides a sweeping look at the logistical circumstances of filmmaking in the region along with the criteria involved in interpreting a Latin American film It includes interviews with and brief biographies of influential filmmakers along with film synopses production details and credits transcripts of selected scenes and suggestions for discussion and analysis

Mark Twain among the Indians and Other Indigenous Peoples Kerry Driscoll, 2018-06-01 Mark Twain among the Indians and Other Indigenous Peoples is the first book length study of the writer's evolving views regarding the aboriginal inhabitants of North America and the Southern Hemisphere and his deeply conflicted representations of them in fiction newspaper sketches and speeches Using a wide range of archival materials including previously unexamined marginalia in books from Clemens's personal library Driscoll charts the development of the writer's ethnocentric attitudes about Indians and savagery in relation to the various geographic and social milieus of communities he inhabited at key periods in his life from antebellum Hannibal Missouri and the Sierra Nevada mining camps of the 1860s to the progressive urban enclave of Hartford's Nook Farm The book also examines the impact of Clemens's 1895-96 world lecture tour when he traveled to Australia and New Zealand and learned firsthand about the dispossession and mistreatment of native peoples under British colonial rule This groundbreaking work of cultural studies offers fresh readings of canonical texts such as The Adventures of Tom Sawyer A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court Roughing It and Following the Equator as well as a number of Twain's shorter works

Mother and Motherland in Jamaica Kincaid Sabrina Brancato, 2005 This book introduces students to the work of the Caribbean writer Jamaica Kincaid The author offers a close analysis of six of Kincaid's works reading the central theme of the love hate relationship between mother and daughter as a metaphor for the dialectic of power and powerlessness governing nature and history Placed in the specific context of the Caribbean in colonial times the mother daughter plot reads as an allegory of the conflict between the motherland and the colony The association is played out at two levels with the nurturing figure of childhood embodying the African rooted Caribbean world and the scornful mother of adolescence evoking the subjugating colonial power Two conflicting worlds the African and the European meet in the duplicitous figure of the mother

Rethinking Race in Modern Argentina Paulina Alberto, Eduardo Elena, 2016-03-21 This book reconsiders the relationship between race and nation in Argentina during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and places Argentina firmly in dialog with the literature on race and nation in Latin America from where it has long been excluded or marginalized for being a white European exception in a mixed race region The contributors based both in North America and Argentina hail from the fields of history anthropology and literary and cultural studies Their essays collectively destabilize widespread certainties about Argentina showing that whiteness in that country has more in common with practices and ideologies of Mestizaje and racial democracy elsewhere in the region than has typically been acknowledged. The essays also situate Argentina within the well established literature on race nation and whiteness in world regions beyond Latin America particularly other European settler societies. The collection thus contributes to rethinking race for other global contexts as well.

Getting to Know Waiwai Alan Campbell, 2002-09-11. Living with the Wayapi and their charismatic leader Waiwai is a serious adventure. It is demanding and can turn dangerous in a moment. The environment is a difficult one but beautiful and baffling in its richness. And the job of learning about the people is like a journey without end. Alan Campbell tells the story of these people and of the time he spent with them in an imaginative beautifully written account which looks back from a century into the future to relate a way of life that is being destroyed. In doing so he addresses important and complex issues in current anthropological theory in a way which makes them accessible without sacrificing any of their subtlety.

American Lit Remixed Melissa J. Strong, 2021-04-30. American Lit Remixed identifies a new sound in literature emerging after the digital revolution. It reads works by Jennifer Egan, Sherman Alexie and others through the lenses of remix theory. The term Eduardo Navas coined to describe the remix as a form of artistic and cultural discourse and the music industry's preoccupations with nostalgia and authenticity arguing that digital age fiction, poetry and drama remix the music and technology of the past to offer new modes of connecting to self, others and place. Musical features such as references to popular songs, structural similarities to music recordings and thematic treatment of the riffing and borrowing endemic within popular music lend a retro sound feel and structure to contemporary American texts even when they refer to life in the digital era. Through engaging with the musical past, literature resists nostalgia and remixes the twenty first century's dystopian disconnected ethos to find possibility and hope for the future. Critics often focus on technology's negative impact on the music industry but American Lit Remixed emphasizes music as a source of creative potential in twenty first century literature including new ways of storytelling and relating.

Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics Jens Andermann, Gabriel Giorgi, Victoria Saramago, 2023-09-05. The Handbook of Latin American Environmental Aesthetics offers a comprehensive overview of Latin American aesthetic and conceptual production addressing the more than human environment at the intersection between art, activism and critique. Fields include literature, performance, film and other audiovisual media as well as their interactions with community activisms. Scholars who have helped establish environmental approaches in the field as well as emergent critical voices revisit key concepts such as ecocriticism, post extractivism and multinaturalism while opening new avenues of dialogue with areas including critical race theory and ethnicity, energy, humanities, queer, trans studies and infrastructure studies among others. This volume both traces these genealogies and maps out key positions in this increasingly central field of Latin Americanism at the same time as they relate it to the environmental humanities at large. By showing how artistic and literary productions illuminate critical zones of environmental thought, articulating urgent social and material issues with cultural archives, historical approaches and conceptual interventions this volume offers cutting edge critical tools for approaching literature and the arts from new angles that call into question the nature culture boundary

The Lives of Stories Emma Dortins,2018-12-05 The Lives of Stories traces three stories of Aboriginal settler friendships that intersect with the ways in which Australians remember founding national stories build narratives for cultural revival and work on reconciliation and self determination These three stories which are still being told with creativity and commitment by storytellers today are the story of James Morrill s adoption by Birri Gubba people and re adoption 17 years later into the new colony of Queensland the story of Bennelong and his relationship with Governor Phillip and the Sydney colonists and the story of friendship between Wiradjuri leader Windradyne and the Suttor family Each is an intimate story about people involved in relationships of goodwill care adoptive kinship and mutual learning across cultures and the strains of maintaining or relinquishing these bonds as they took part in the larger events that signified the colonisation of Aboriginal lands by the British Each is a story in which cross cultural understanding and misunderstanding are deeply embedded and in which the act of storytelling itself has always been an engagement in cross cultural relations The Lives of Stories reflects on the nature of story as part of our cultural inheritance and seeks to engage the reader in becoming more conscious of our own effect as history makers as we retell old stories with new meanings in the present and pass them on to new generations Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1979-03 Restorative Justice and Practice in US Education Kenneth R.
