Great Flame Within - The Story of a Forgotten

Master Charlene Lerch,2010-10-11 This is a true story which began in 1987 and continues still today It is a testimony from the author regarding her spiritual awakening journey that involved love honor strength and courage while trying to survive a horrifying and painful telekinetic conflict which came close to killing her brought about because of what she had in her soul It also includes an intergalactic encounter heard of only in the movies that introduced her to some amazing and unique metaphysical mentors who defended and taught her Hardly anyone would believe her then but since making her recent videos about what she endured many have come forward and shared with her nearly the same type story Will they believe her now

Confession and Complicity in Narrative Dennis A. Foster,1987-05-29 What is the precise relationship between the writer of a text and the reader Contributions to reader response theory have suggested that the reader is relatively passive In this 1987 text Professor Foster argues that the relationship is more complex than that readers enter into complicity with writers and create the illusion of the writer s mastery over meaning in order to imagine themselves as masters and become writers in their own place This dynamic model of the reading process is revealed most tellingly in confessional narratives and so Professor Foster explores the complex patterns of the reader writer symbiosis in texts by Augustine Kierkegaard Henry James Hawthorne Faulkner and Beckett What emerges is a fresh theory of reading literature the engagement between writer and reader as a struggle for power in which the reader is actively complicit and self conscious in his or her interpretations
