Kell,2009 The struggle for control of the Southern Baptist Convention which was publicly launched in 1979 and concluded in the 1990s marked an unprecedented turning point in the history of the denomination Just as a new millennium was dawning everything in the denomination was different its priorities its policies and its personalities The conservatives had come decisively to the fore and those Baptists labeled as moderates found themselves largely exiled from the religious communities that had formed them and to which they had given their lives

Using rhetorical and historical analysis to illuminate the role of the Baptist moderates and the schisms that led to their banishment Carl Kell argues that the twenty first century Baptist diaspora originated in an unintended fashion after World War II Birthed in a postwar revival movement at Baylor University in Waco Texas young men and women with little or no training in preaching and religious organization became the progenitors of a distinctive community of moderate believers Armed with a spirit of evangelism and missions fueled by a rhetoric of freedom these men and women would be among the first exiles and martyrs of the fundamentalist takeover that occurred years later As he probes the rhetoric that defined the moderate voice in Southern Baptist life Kell also shows how the rise of a conservative counter rhetoric associated with biblical inerrancy and related doctrines came into play to exclude and divide members of the convention Complementing Kell's text are contributions by several other prominent observers of the Southern Baptist holy wars among them William Hull Bill Leonard and Duke McCall The end result is a unique and penetrating examination of not only where the Baptist moderates came from but where they are headed and how they will get there Carl Kell is professor of communication at Western Kentucky University He is the editor of Exiled Voices of the Southern Baptist Convention Holy War and coauthor with Raymond Camp of In the Name of the Father The Rhetoric of the New Southern Baptist Convention Why be a Christian? Howard P. Giddens, 2007 His active service spanned the last six decades of the twentieth century but even in retirement his influence continues unabated A graduate of Mercer University and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary he served as pastor of three Georgia Baptist churches and then as professor of Christianity at Mercer He is the epitome of the scholar pastor These sermons which cover such subjects as Jesus Christ the Christian life holy days the family evangelism and missions reverberate with a deep love for the Lord for the church for the Bible and for people The book will be a treasure to those who had the privilege of being parishioners or students of Dr Giddens It will also serve as a valuable resource to students and practitioners of preaching First it offers one of the finest examples available of a classical preaching style that was practiced in the mid twentieth century Second it shows how careful scholarship deep piety warm hearted compassion and prophetic challenge can be combined in a sermon Third it contains material that will offer stimulus and inspiration for the crafting of sermons today These sermons inspire teach and convict These are the words of a man who has made a difference in thousands of lives A Life Shared Margaret Cornell, 2013-12-05 Set in a small village in Cambridgeshire Margaret recounts her dramatic conversion in 1970 which led to her heart and her home being open to sixty five people in forty five years Led by God Margaret and her husband Tony moved from three to six and then ten bedrooms to accommodate their growing family Their Liquorice Allsort residents added great richness to their lives During their early Christian life their son was killed in a road accident which far from crushing their faith made them stronger than ever and their witness resulted in a small revival in their Anglican church Eventually in 1982 they made room in their hearts for many more people when controversially side by side they pioneered and pastored a lively and successful Charismatic church for twenty five years It was prophesied that they would be like two Shire horses pulling a plough Margaret clearly heard God speak and direct her to minister to others and to trust God for everything from her own clothing to buying houses As a result she is very keen to teach others how to hear God for themselves It has always been Margaret's aim to love God and love people whatever the cost
