Love And Obey God:

The Heart of Love Ted Rivera, 2013-12-03 A marvel of succinctness this presentation is one of the best I have seen for initial direction in the faith once delivered to the Fathers Dr Paige Patterson Ted Rivera unpacks the mystery of God's will with a simple yet profound look at what Jesus called the two greatest commandments loving God and loving others Filled with examples drawn from everyday life Rivera's book is practical and wise a welcome primer for any student of the Bible wanting to deepen their understanding of how to follow Jesus rightly In the end Rivera concludes Jesus isn't looking merely for consistency in obedience but for obedience in love Indeed all our good deeds are utterly worthless if they are disconnected from a heart that beats not only with love for our God but also with love for our fellow human beings The Heart of Love urges readers toward a deepened faith and a greater imitation of the God who is love Sermons on Obeying God H. S. Ryu , Table of Contents Jesus the perfect man and God Love your God Only God can save us Ask God to help you pray for people Thank God who helps us to help Christians Jesus will be back God's prophets and Jesus Jesus the true Light God keeps God's promise and accomplishes God's words A shoemaker and his guests God helps us to wait for Christ God Help us listen and obey God no matter what How does God lead God's people God can change you and your people Love, Human and Divine Edward Collins Vacek, 1994-04-01 Although the two great commandments to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves are central to Christianity few theologians or spiritual writers have undertaken an extensive account of the meaning and forms of these loves Most accounts in fact make love of God and love of self either impossible or immoral Integrating these two commandments Edward Vacek SJ develops an original account of love as the theological foundation for Christian ethics Vacek criticizes common understandings of agape eros and philia examining the arguments of Aquinas Nygren Outka Rahner Scheler and other theologians and philosophers He defines love as an emotional affirmative participation in the beloved's real and ideal goodness and he extends this definition to the love between God and self Vacek proposes that the heart of Christian moral life is loving cooperation with God in a mutually perfecting friendship

Sanctification Thomas D. Hawkes, 2020-10-09 Have you ever wondered how you can make real spiritual progress as a Christian Have you wanted to know how you might better defeat nagging sins and find new freedom Sanctification A User's Guide to Becoming More Like Jesus offers you a deep understanding of precisely how you can grow in likeness to Jesus Christ Based upon a careful study of the teachings of the Bible and great leaders of the Reformation Sanctification presents a clear and compelling approach to daily practices which will actually assist the Christian in spiritual growth through relying on the grace of God to transform them Starting with a framework for understanding what holiness is Sanctification shows you how to desire holiness rely on God's grace apprehend God's life altering love grow in faith and repentance deny one's self and engage the church While many books on sanctification emphasize one or two aspects of the Christian's growth in holiness Sanctification presents a complete approach to a biblical lifestyle which helps one grow more like Christ Love Focused

Bob Hughes, Judy Hughes, 2008      God, Reason, and Theistic Proofs Stephen T. Davis, 1997 Wisely structured and clearly written God Reason and Theistic Proofs will make an excellent resource for those looking for an introduction to the debate surrounding the existence of God or for those seeking intellectual validation for their faith      Sitting in God's Sunshine...Resting in His Love ,      The Church School Journal , 1889      God's Plan Chuck Brown, 2021-10-08 What is God's plan for growing the Christian church Author Chuck Brown says that it is in the principles that Jesus taught his disciples in the Bible books Matthew Mark Luke and John These principles when combined with prayer and the work of the Holy Spirit bring success whenever they are tried Chuck organizes these principles in a way which makes it easy to understand God's plan of salvation including justification sanctification and glorification The book is based upon a systematic verse by verse study of the above mentioned Bible books and reveals God's plan for exponential church growth through discipleship which leads to multiplication Jesus said to go and make disciples of all nations Matthew 28 19 and he left his disciples with the plan to successfully do just that      God Created Man in His Image and Likeness Oried E. Graves, 2012-10-26 Everyone who reads the Bible must admit that it tells us to do things that we never have done and cannot do in our fleshly bodies One reason is that God our Creator is telling us what He wants us to be and do as created in His image and likeness Our purpose is in our image and likeness of God our Creator not like the dust of the ground or the flesh of our parents Most children don't know that they are created in the image and likeness of God and their parents have not asked God for His spirit for their children so they can be taught this vital truth The reason parents don't ask God for His spirit for their children is because they don't recognize the need for Him There are several things mankind cannot do in the flesh and they must recognize their origin in the image and likeness of God Mankind must recognize being in the image and likeness of God to first love God with all their being and love his neighbors as himself second to obey God and his parents as required in God's word third to trust God with all his heart fourth to worship God in spirit and in truth and fifth to glorify God in his body and spirit which are God The devil does not want mankind to know that he is created in the image and likeness of God because man will always defeat Satan and fulfill God's will      The Love Commandment in Mark George Keerankeri, 2003 This research work investigates the problem whether the texts of the love commandment of Mk 12 28 34 which are quotations of Deut 6 4 5 and Lev 19 18 have their original OT meaning in the gospel of Mark or whether they acquire besides this a specific Markan enrichment The study not only affirms such a specificity but also demonstrates its richness and depth It establishes that the distinctiveness of the Markan conception of the love commandment is closely linked to the person of Jesus and is expressed in a multiplicity of data both formal and thematic which can be discovered in an integral reading of the gospel The methodology employed is modern redaction criticism which differs from classical Redaction criticism in that it is synchronic and takes the text as it stands as a coherent and wholistic document to be understood in terms of itself and thus studies it in an integral reading The investigation has two parts involving four chapters and a general conclusion Part I comprising Ch I and Ch II dwells on the OT meaning and context of the texts of the love commandment and provides a lucid account of them which serves as the basis for its study in the gospel Part II researches the commandment in Mk in two chapters Of these Ch III represents the gospel s theoretical interpretation of the commandment and Ch IV Jesus fulfillment of it in the Passion his instruction by example Together they complete Mark s total interpretation of the love comandment Following this the general conclusion sees the Markan specificities in a unifying theological vision defined by the gospel s Christology and closes by drawing its consequences George Keerankeri was born on 10 December 1944 at Kothanalloor in Kerala India He entered the Society of Jesus in 1962 and was ordained a priest in 1974 He holds an M A in Social Cultural Anthropology and completed his Licentiate in Sacred Scripture LSS at the Pontifical Biblical institute Rome in 1979 Ever since he is a lecturer of the New Testament at Vidyajyoti College of Theology the Jesuit Faculty of Theology in Delhi India

A God Like No Other: Depaganizing the God of the Hebrew Bible David A. Brondos,2024-07-15 For centuries scholars and interpreters of the Hebrew Scriptures or Old Testament have read those Scriptures as if they spoke of a God whose desires concerns and interests were essentially no different than those of the other gods of antiquity known to us Like those gods what the God of Israel supposedly sought above all else was the honor worship and obedience of human beings and their submission to his will as his faithful and devoted servants While he undoubtedly demanded the practice of what was good right and merciful among his people in a way that set him apart from other gods ultimately he did so for his own sake in order to bring about in them the type of behavior that pleased him and compel them to live in conformity with his justice holiness and righteousness Those who sought to enjoy his blessings and avoid his fierce wrath and punishments had no choice but to strive to keep him content by observing all that he had commanded and making atonement for the sins and offenses they committed by offering him the sacrifices that appeased him Although he loved his people deeply his righteous and holy nature placed limits on that love and prevented him from showing them his favor unless the demands of his nature were satisfied When we abandon such an understanding of the God of Israel and instead read the Hebrew Bible on its own terms in order to grasp the logic underlying its narratives however a very different portrait of God emerges The God of whom the biblical texts speak is a God who desires nothing but the good for all those whom he has created and refuses to back down from his efforts to bring them to live in ways that will allow them to enjoy the wholeness and well being he desires for all when they insist on filling their lives with injustice suffering and violence When he demands that they obey all that he has commanded by practicing justice and compassion and avoiding behaviors that do them harm he does so not for his sake but for theirs If he jealously refuses to let his people serve and worship other gods it is only because those gods bring death and destruction rather than the life that is found in him alone While at times he must himself resort to violence and even bring down evil on human beings in order to put a stop to oppression and injustice he does so only because his passionate and unbending commitment to the well being of all of the families of the earth together with his beloved people Israel will not allow him to hold back or relent in his efforts to save them not from him but from themselves Christian and Jewish readers alike will find in the present volume a God who is very different from the God they have been taught to encounter previously in the biblical texts a God whose ultimate concern is not for his own glory honor or worship or for the demands of a righteous and holy nature that holds him captive but for the healing wholeness and well being of all of his creatures Such an understanding of God not only calls into question traditional interpretations of the Hebrew Bible but also lays the basis for a fresh reading of the many difficult passages that have long challenged biblical interpreters due to the violent and troubling image of God that they convey
