The Boy I Love Lynda Bellingham, 2014-11-20 A superb evocation of theatre life from a naturally gifted storyteller the beloved Lynda Bellingham It is the summer of 82 as Sally Thomas prepares to leave her job at the British Drama League in London and head off to the North of England for her very first season in repertory as an Assistant Stage Manager at the beautiful old theatre in Crewe Flung into this new world Sally soon finds her feet thanks to her own steady unspoilt nature and to the company of her best friend Jeremy One of the first lessons she learns is that the other actors barely need tuition in the art of stage fighting since they are quite adept at stabbing each other in the back When Jeremy falls suddenly and dangerously in love Sally needs to grow up fast A shadow is falling over the theatre sparing no one and a tragedy is gathering pace in the darkness behind the stage The Boy I Love is a superb evocation of theatre and real life that will stay with you long after you've read it Be warned it may just break your heart To Sir, With Love E. R.

Braithwaite, 2014-01-14 This schoolroom drama that inspired the classic Sidney Poitier film is a microcosm of the racial issues A dramatic picture of discrimination Kirkus Reviews With opportunities for black men limited in post World War II London Rick Braithwaite a former Royal Air Force pilot and Cambridge educated engineer accepts a teaching position that puts him in charge of a class of angry unmotivated bigoted white teenagers whom the system has mostly abandoned When his efforts to reach these troubled students are met with threats suspicion and derision Braithwaite takes a radical new approach He will treat his students as people poised to enter the adult world He will teach them to respect themselves and to call him Sir He will open up vistas before them that they never knew existed And over the course of a remarkable year he will touch the lives of his students in extraordinary ways even as they in turn unexpectedly and profoundly touch his Based on actual events in the author's life To Sir With Love is a powerfully moving story that celebrates courage commitment and vision and is the inspiration for the classic film starring Sidney Poitier The Transmutation of Love and Avant-Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving, 2016-05-19

The Transmutation of Love and Avant-Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving, 2016-05-19 The Transmutation of Love and Avant-Garde Poetics is a probing examination of how the writing of sexual love undergoes a radical revision by avant-garde poets in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries Today the exploration of love by poets long a fixture of Western poetic tradition is thought to be in decline with love itself understood to be a mere ideological overlay for the more real entities of physical sex and desire In The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving claims that a key achievement of poetry by Ezra Pound H D Robert Duncan Kathleen Fraser Nathaniel Mackey and others lies significantly in their engagement with the synergistic relations between being in love and writing love These poets she argues have traded the clichéd lover of yore for impersonal or posthuman poetic speakers that sustain the gloire and mystery of love poetry of prior centuries As Robert Duncan writes There is a love in which we are outcast and vagabond from what we are that we call falling in love Heuving claims that this writing of love is defining for avant garde poetics identifying how such important discoveries as Pound's and H D's Imagism Pound's Cantos and Duncan's open field poetics are derived through their changed writing of love She draws attention to how the prevailing concept of language as material is inadequate to the ways these poets also engage language as a medium as a conduit enabling them to address love afresh in a time defined through preoccupations with sexuality They engage love as immanent and change it through a writing that acts on itself The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics ascribes the waning of love poetry to its problematic form a genre in which empowered poetic speakers constitute their speech through the objectification of comparatively disempowered subjects or beloveds Refusing this pervasive practice the poets she highlights reject the delimiting one-sided tradition of masculine lovers and passive feminine beloveds instead they create a more nuanced dynamic poetics of ecstatic exploration what Heuving calls projective love and libidinalized field poetics a formally innovative poetry in which one perception leads directly to the next and all aspects of a poem are generative of meaning

Till Then My Love Forever Donald Scioscia, Donald Maclaren, 2004 I BELIEVE DIVINE INTERVENTION HELPED SAVE MY LIFE Other people may call it being lucky beating the odds or a twist of fate But there was one day in my life one dramatic moment that determined whether I would live or die The intervention came so dramatically I thought that what happened must have been from God Amazingly it was not a doctor who rescued me from death Instead God sent the most famous Wall Street financier and philanthropist at the time who met with presidents of the United States His name was Bernard M Baruch Now that I m in my seventies I have the luxury of looking back and trying to understand why God gave me a long life what I like to call the mystery of life with a little intervention from Mr Baruch Why did God let me live That is an interesting question only because I never became as wealthy or famous Mr Baruch
