Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements

The Science of Right in Leibniz's Moral and Political Philosophy Christopher Johns, 2013-08-15 Studies of Gottfried Leibniz's moral and political philosophy typically focus on metaphysical perfection happiness or love In this new reading of Leibniz Christopher Johns shows that it is based on a science of right Based on the deontic concepts of jus right and obligation this science of right is established in Leibniz's early writings on jurisprudence and depended on throughout several of his major late writings Johns shows that the moral rightness of an action is grounded in the rights and obligations derived from the agent's capacity for freedom This new interpretation of Leibniz's moral philosophy compares Leibniz's positions with Grotius Pufendorf Hobbes Locke and Kant Providing a comprehensive examination of Leibniz's most important writings on natural right John's argues that Leibniz properly understood provides a compelling account of the grounds of morality and of political institutions an account relevant to present philosophical debates

Philosophical Analysis D.S. Austin, 2012-12-06 Analytic philosophy is alive and in good health as this collection of twenty previously unpublished essays most ably demonstrates. The reader will find here assembled some of the finest writings of modern analytic philosophers at the top of their form. Matthews discusses Plato's attempt to deal with the problem of false belief about identities. Parson evaluates Russell's early theory of denoting phrases. Chisholm exhibits the utility of thirteen epistemic categories. Plantinga criticizes Chisholm's account of justification. Conee argues that solving the Gettier Problem is important and Ginet proposes a solution to it. Lehrer criticizes an argument based on the simplicity of our belief in material objects and other minds. R. Feldman defends an account of having evidence. F. Feldman defends a propositional account of pleasure. Van Fraassen criticizes Garber's solution to the problem of old evidence. Casta eda investigates the nature of negation. McKay argues that de se analyses of belief do not account for belief de re. Richard argues that no Fregean semantics for belief attribution will succeed. Ryckman suggests that the Millian theory of names has little to do with the theory of belief. It is no threat to God's omniscience. Dunn investigates constraints imposed on non-classical modal logics by extensionality. Fitch argues that singular propositions perform important functions in modal logic. Jubien evaluates arguments for and against possible worlds. Ratzsch argues that there must be a deeper source of nomicality than ordinary subjunctives. and Stalnaker argues that there is room for determinacy of identity and indeterminacy in reference.
