Thirteen-year-old Pia's life is forever changed by leprosy. Pia has never known his real father. But Kamaka, a family friend, has taught him how to work, explore, and take on physical challenges. Pia believes Kamaka is fearless. He never suspects that a time will come when Kamaka could actually be afraid of him. Neither does he expect his own body to betray him or his government to tear him from his family and send him into exile. When Pia finds himself abandoned on Molokai in Hawai'i's leprosy settlement, he turns to the skills he learned from Kamaka to help him survive. But the conditions are harsh. Pia discovers that he must choose between lawlessness and aloha, revenge and forgiveness, his own willfulness and the example of someone worthy of being like a father. This fictional account was inspired by the experiences of the many Hawaiians who were sent to Molokai's isolated Kalaupapa peninsula starting in 1866 and by the life of Father Damien deVeuster, who chose to live and work there in the late 1800s. The author conducted extensive research, working with experts and visiting the leprosy settlement. Access Hawaii Richard Saul Wurman, Cat Milan, 1999. Brand new to the eighth edition are nearly 40 lodging and dining spots on six islands, late-breaking information on new attractions like the U.S.S. Missouri Museum at Pearl Harbor and the world's largest maze at the Dole Pineapple Plantation. Color maps, Illustrations. Great Thoughts from Master Minds, 1889 Islands Magazine

This thoughtful examination of a century of travel writing about the American West overturns a variety of popular and academic stereotypes Looking at both European and American travelers accounts of the West from de Tocqueville s Democracy in America to William Least Heat Moon s Blue Highways David Wrobel offers a counter narrative to the nation s romantic entanglement with its western past and suggests the importance of some long overlooked authors lively and perceptive witnesses to our history who deserve new attention Prior to the professionalization of academic disciplines the reading public gained much of its knowledge about the world from travel writing Travel writers found a wide and respectful audience for their reports on history geography and the natural world in addition to reporting on aboriginal cultures before the advent of anthropology as a discipline Although in recent decades western historians have paid little attention to travel writing Wrobel demonstrates that this genre in fact offers an important and rich understanding of the American West one that extends and complicates a simple reading of the West that promotes the notions of Manifest Destiny or American exceptionalism Wrobel finds counterpoints to the mythic West of the nineteenth century in such varied accounts as George Catlin s Adventures of the Ojibbeway and Ioway Indians in England France and Belgium 1852 Richard Francis Burton s The City of the Saints 1861 and Mark Twain s Following the Equator 1897 reminders of the messy and contradictory world that people navigated in the past much as they do in the present His book is a testament to the instructive ways in which the best travel writers have represented the West Hawaii ,1996 Legislative Documents Iowa,1894 Contains the reports of state departments and officials for the preceding fiscal biennium The Book of Knowledge Arthur Mee,1911 Memories, Portraits, Essays and Records Robert Louis Stevenson,2014-01-21 This edition is one the most complete Stevensonian collections It contains a wealth of his essays memories and records The essays brought together under this title are chiefly Stevenson s reflections ten years afterwards on the experiences and friendships of his youth They represent a proportion of his contributions of this kind to reviews and magazines from 1882 to 1887 Some of the essays are The Foreigner at Home Old Mortality Pastoral The Manse Thomas Stevenson Talk and Talkers The Character of Dogs and A Penny Plain Classified Catalogue Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1914 Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1907-1911 ,1914 Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. 1907-1911 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1914
