López, 2000 This new three volume encyclopedia features over 4 000 entries on more than 40 regions in Latin America and the Caribbean from 1920 to the present day Art of California , 1991 The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1998 For over a hundred years stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world For many writers photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous As

Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art

Seizing the Light Robert Hirsch, 2017-04-07 The definitive history of photography book Seizing the Light A Social Aesthetic History of Photography delivers the fascinating story of how photography as an art form came into being and its continued development maturity and transformation Covering the major events practitioners works and social effects of photographic practice Robert Hirsch provides a concise and discerning chronological account of Western photography This fundamental starting place shows the diversity of makers inventors issues and applications exploring the artistic critical and social aspects of the creative process The third edition includes up to date information about contemporary photographers like Cindy Sherman and Yang Yongliang and comprehensive coverage of the digital revolution including the rise of mobile photography the citizen as journalist and the role of social media Highly illustrated with full color images and contributions from hundreds of artists around the world Seizing the Light serves as a gateway to the history of photography Written in an accessible style it is perfect for students newly engaging with the practice of photography and for experienced photographers wanting to contextualize their own work

Image and Memory Wendy Watriss, Lois Parkinson Zamora, 1998 FotoFest 1992 a major festival of international photography brought Latin American photography into focus for a wide audience Offering a diverse selection of photographers countries artistic movements and subject matter the show revealed a photographic tradition rich in history and creativity Drawing from the more than 1 000 images exhibited by FotoFest this book documents the work of fifty two photographers from ten countries The photographs range from the opening of the Brazilian frontier in the 1880s to a secret archive of documentary images from El Salvador s recent civil war to works of specifically aesthetic intent Many of the photographs appear here in print for the first time Watriss s opening essay provides the curatorial overview for the book Lois Zamora examines the roots of visual image making in Latin American cultures Boris Kossoy addresses the history of Latin American photography through the nineteenth century while Fernando Castro covers the contemporary scene With its compelling images and English Spanish text this book will serve as a benchmark for future studies of photography in Latin America

History and Modern Media John Mraz, 2021-04-15 In History and Modern Media John Mraz largely focuses on Mexican photography and his innovative methodology that examines historical photographs by employing the concepts of genre and function He developed this method in extensive work on photojournalism it is tested here through examining two genres Indianist imagery as an expression of imperial neo colonizing and decolonizing photography and progressive photography as embodied in worker and laborist imagery as well as feminist and decolonizing visuality The book interweaves an autobiographical narrative with concrete research Mraz describes the resistance he encountered in US academia to this new way of showing and describing the past in films and photographs as well as some illuminating experiences as a visiting professor at several US universities More importantly he reflects on what it has meant to move to Mexico and become a Mexican Mexico is home to a thriving school of photohistorians perhaps unequalled in the world Some were trained in art history and a few continue to pursue that discipline However the great majority work from the discipline known as photohistory which focuses on vernacular photographs made outside of artistic intentions A central premise of the book is that knowing the cultures of the past and of the other is crucial in societies dominated by short term and parochial thinking and that today's hyper audiovisuality requires historians to use modern media to offer their knowledge as alternatives to the perpetual present in which we live Seeing Mexico Photographed Leonard Folgarait, 2008 This engrossing book presents the photographs of four historically engaged artists and explains what they reveal about the highly dramatic revolutionary and post revolutionary period in Mexico from 1910 to 1935 The works of these photographers American Walter H Horne Italian Tina Modotti and Mexicans Agustín Víctor Casasola and Manuel Álvarez Bravo are discussed not just as windows onto events but as artworks that offer both objective reporting and stylized expression The twenty five years covered in the book encompass some of the most convulsive developments in Mexico from the violence and cataclysmic changes wrought by the Mexican Revolution to the immense struggles to forge a new nation and a new government During this period the work of the four photographers two primarily documentary one propagandistic and one artistic and personal enabled Mexicans to understand the forces that had brought their nation to armed conflict and social transformation Photographs Sotheby's (Firm), 2004 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1992 A Shadow Born of Earth Elizabeth Ferrer, 1993 Published in conjunction with an exhibition organized and circulated by The American Federation of Arts with stops in California Oklahoma Washington and New York through 1995 The insightful text in English and Spanish describes the rich tradition of Mexican photography and the new ideas and techniques Photography Mary Warner Marien, 2006 Each of the eight chapters takes a period of up to forty years and examines the medium through the lenses of art science social science travel war fashion the mass media and individual practitioners Back Cover Art Now Gallery Guide, 1993-03 Who's who in American Art, 1993-12 Américas, 1990
