Understanding Pain Naheed Ali, Moshe Lewis, 2015-04-01 Pain is informally defined as the body's way of uncovering a problem. Whether due to an injury, infection or something else, pain alerts a person that something is not right. Sometimes pain goes along with inflammation and swelling and when it does the problem is more evident. Oftentimes pain is more generalized to the entire body, signaling a viral infection such as a flu virus. Still other times there is no apparent root cause for a person's pain. Yet millions of people suffer from some form of pain on a daily basis. Understanding Pain walks readers through the various types of pain, the causes and symptoms as well as the methods of treatment currently available. From prescription medication to acupuncture and massage therapy, various approaches may work for some but not for others. But handling pain is essential for living well and functioning on a daily basis. Here the authors provide a comprehensive introduction to the subject, covering self-care as well as caring for others in pain and addressing alternative as well as traditional methods of pain management.

Taking Control of Cancer Beverley van der Molen, 2003 An accessible and practical book of advice on the diagnosis, treatments and resources available to cancer sufferers and featuring personal stories from people who have experienced cancer.

Human Rights and Minority Rights in the European Union Kirsten Shoraka, 2010-06-17 Examines the development and the role of human rights in the European Union, arguing that human rights have become an important component of the foreign policy of the European Union. This book analyses the EU's policy on minorities as a particular example of human rights.

The 10 Best Questions for Living with Alzheimer's Dede Bonner, 2008-11-04 A good mind knows the right answers but a great mind knows the right questions. And never are the 10 Best Questions more important than after the life-altering diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease. Drawing on cutting-edge research and advice given by experts from the Alzheimer's Association, Mayo Clinic and UCLA's Memory Clinic and Center for Aging as well as personal stories from caretakers including television star and activist Linda Dano and nationally syndicated columnist Harriet Cole, The 10 Best Questions for Living with Alzheimer's is a guide you'll take with you to your doctor's office and keep close at hand as your loved one progresses from the initial diagnosis through all the stages of the disease. In addition to the medical questions you'll also learn what you need to ask your spouse or parent, questions to assess home safety issues, driving skills and home care, and how to care for your own emotional, legal and financial health. With a wealth of resources and up-to-the-minute information, The 10 Best Questions for Living with Alzheimer's shows you and your family how to move past a scary diagnosis and use the power of questions to become your own best health advocate for yourself and for your loved one.

Diversity and European Human Rights Eva Brems, 2012-11-22 Through redrafting the judgments of the ECHR Diversity and European Human Rights demonstrates how the court could improve the mainstreaming of diversity in its judgments Eighteen judgments are considered and rewritten to reflect the concerns of women children LGB persons ethnic and religious minorities and persons with disabilities in turn Each redrafted judgment is accompanied by a paper outlining the theoretical concepts and frameworks that guided the approaches of the authors and explaining how each amendment to the original text is an improvement Simultaneously the authors demonstrate how difficult it can be to translate ideas into judgments whilst also providing examples of what those ideas would look like in judicial language By rewriting actual judicial decisions in a wide range of topics this book offers a broad overview of diversity issues in the jurisprudence of the ECHR and aims to bridge the gap between academic analysis and judicial practice
