Second Temple Studies Iii:

Second Temple Studies III Philip R. Davies, John M. Halligan, 2002-10-01 This volume offers a systematic approach to the Persian Ptolemaic Seleucid and Hasmonean period correlating social contexts with the biblical and post biblical literature that each period generated The list of contributors includes many of the pioneers of the field of Second Temple sociology including Kenneth Hoglund John Wright Lester Grabbe Richard Horsley James Pasto Robert Doran and the editors The volume which also includes an introductory essay on the methods and outcomes of this kind of exercise furnishes an excellent introduction to the agenda of interpreting biblical texts as social products Second Temple Studies III Philip R.

Davies, John M. Halligan, 2002-01-01 This volume offers a systematic approach to the Persian Ptolemaic Seleucid and Hasmonean period correlating social contexts with the biblical and post biblical literature that each period generated The list of contributors includes many of the pioneers of the field of Second Temple sociology including Kenneth Hoglund John Wright Lester Grabbe Richard Horsley James Pasto Robert Doran and the editors The volume which also includes an introductory essay on the methods and outcomes of this kind of exercise furnishes an excellent introduction to the agenda of interpreting biblical texts as social products Iconographic Exegesis and Third Isaiah Izaak Joziás Hulster, 2009 Although scholars employ pictorial material in biblical exegesis the question of how images from the Ancient Near East can contribute to a better understanding of the Bible has been left unanswered This is the first monograph to outline a historical method for iconographic exegesis The methodological study includes both responses to important theoretical questions such as What is an image and What is culture and an interdisciplinary exploration of issues of history art history archaeology and cultural anthropology The three stage method proposed is embedded in hermeneutical and exegetical reflections The application of iconographical exegesis to the interpretation of metaphors is also considered In demonstrating the method and its application Izaak J de Hulster focuses on Third Isaiah and develops three iconographical exegetical studies on yad in Isaiah 56 5 light in Isaiah 60 and grape processing in Isaiah 63

Persian Royal-Judaeen Elite Engagements in the Early Teispid and Achaemenid Empire Jason M. Silverman, 2019-11-14 Jason Silverman presents a timely and necessary study advancing the understanding of Achaemenid ideology and Persian Period Judaism While the Achaemenid Persian Empire c 550 330 BCE dwarfed all previous empires of the Ancient Near East in both size and longevity the royal system that forged and preserved this civilisation remains only rudimentarily understood as is the imperial and religious legacy bequeathed to future generations In response to this deficit Silverman provides a critically sophisticated and interdisciplinary model for comparative studies While the Achaemenids rebuilt the Jerusalem temple Judaeen literature of the period reflects tensions over its Persian re establishment demonstrating colliding religious perspectives Although both First Zechariah 1 8 and Second Isaiah 40 55 are controversial the greater imperial context is rarely dealt with in depth both books deal directly with the temple s legitimacy and this ties them intimately to kings engagements with cults Silverman explores how the

Achaemenid kings portrayed their rule to subject minorities the ways in which minority elites reshaped this ideology and how long this impact lasted as revealed through the Judaeen reactions to the restoration of the Jerusalem temple

The Orion Center Bibliography of the Dead Sea Scrolls and Associated Literature Ruth Anne Clements, Nadav Sharon, 2007 This book presents the authoritative print bibliography of current scholarship on the Dead Sea Scrolls Qumran and related fields including New Testament studies source subject and language indices facilitate its use by scholars and students within and outside the field

Empire, Power and Indigenous Elites Anne Fitzpatrick-McKinley, 2015-03-10 Ancient Near Eastern empires including Assyria Babylon and Persia frequently permitted local rulers to remain in power The roles of the indigenous elites reflected in the Nehemiah Memoir can be compared to those encountered elsewhere Nehemiah was an imperial appointee likely of a military administrative background whose mission was to establish a birta in Jerusalem thereby limiting the power of local elites As a loyal servant of Persia Nehemiah brought to his mission a certain amount of ethnic cultic colouring seen in certain aspects of his activities in Jerusalem in particular in his use of Mosaic authority but not of specific Mosaic laws Nehemiah appealed to ancient Jerusalemite traditions in order to eliminate opposition to him from powerful local elite networks

The Institution of the Hasmonean High Priesthood Vasile Babota, 2013-11-25 In The Institution of the Hasmonean High Priesthood Vasile Babota offers an interdisciplinary study of the establishment of the Hasmonean priests as high priests in Jerusalem from their revolt in 167 down to 140 The Hasmonean high priests exercised both religious and civil powers until 37 B C E and some acted also as kings Previous studies looked at them mainly from a biblical Jewish perspective Vasile Babota persuasively argues that the first high priests Jonathan and Simon acted as Hellenistic high priestly rulers This conclusion is based on an analysis of the activity of the high priests Jonathan and Simon on internal and external levels a comparison with earlier Jewish high priests and a comparison with Hellenistic Seleucid and Ptolemaic high priests

Jewish Cultural Encounters in the Ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern World Mladen Popović, Myles Schoonover, Marijn Vandenberghe, 2017-01-23 The essays in this volume originate from the Third Qumran Institute Symposium held at the University of Groningen December 2013 Taking the flexible concept of cultural encounter as a starting point the essays in this volume bring together a panoply of approaches to the study of various cultural interactions between the people of ancient Israel Judea and Palestine and people from other parts of the ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern world In order to study how cultural encounters shaped historical development literary traditions religious practice and political systems the contributors employ a broad spectrum of theoretical positions e g hybridity m tissage frontier studies postcolonialism entangled histories and multilingualism to interpret a diverse set of literary documentary archaeological epigraphic numismatic and iconographic sources

Imagined Worlds and Constructed Differences in the Hebrew Bible Jeremiah W. Cataldo, 2019-08-22 The purpose of this volume is twofold to introduce readers to the study of cultural memory and identity in relation to the Hebrew Bible and to set up strategies for connecting studies of the historical contexts and literature of the Bible to parallel issues in the present day The volume questions how we can better understand the divide between insider and outsider and the powerful impact of prejudice as a basis for preserving differences between us and them In turn the contributors question how such frameworks shape a community s self perception its economics and politics Guided by the general framework of Anderson s theory of nationalism and the outsider such issues are explored in related ways throughout each of the contributions Each contribution focuses on social economic or political issues that have significantly shaped or influenced dominant elements of cultural memory and the construction of identity in the biblical texts Together the contributions present a larger proposal the broad contours of memory and identity in the Bible are the products of a collective desire to reshape the social political world

The Use and Function of Scripture in 1 Maccabees

Dongbin Choi,2020-10-15 Dongbin Choi offers a philological and thematic analysis on the scriptural language in the book of 1 Maccabees a text that is written with a linguistic technique that utilizes earlier Jewish texts in order to promote the religiopolitical agendas of its author Choi engages in the dialogue between the traditional view that treats 1 Maccabees as a religious writing and the radical view that considers it as political propaganda Choi suggests that the author of 1 Maccabees deploys scriptural language in such a nuanced way that he both promotes the legitimacy of the Hasmonean rule in Judea under John Hyrcanus I and shows his appreciation of conservative Jewish sensitivity toward their traditions relating to Deuteronomic covenant biblical judges and Jewish messianism By discussing past scholarly literature on the use and function of Scripture in 1 Maccabees analyzing various literary political and cultural aspects that influenced the creation of the text and finally exploring philological and conceptual parallels between Scripture and 1 Maccabees and the use of Scripture in the eulogies of the Hasmoneans Choi has created a singular reinterpretation of both text and author
