Governance, Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution Cedric Hilburn Grant, R. Mark Kirton, 2007 Decades after our contemporary international system witnessed the end of the Second World War the events that followed in its aftermath has fashioned an international system characterized by global conflict in the guise of the Cold War Although wars were part of the struggle between the two rival super powers the US and USSR their main theatre was the Third World and hostilities during the Cold War era were global It is against this backdrop that Governance Conflict Analysis and Conflict Resolution addresses conflict in the Caribbean and elsewhere exploring the linkages between conflict and development The book is divided into eight sections and offers diverse views on conflict conflict resolution and governance Part I Governance and Conflict Management in a Global Context Part II Management and resolution of Conflict in the Regional Context Part III Perspectives on Social Stratification Political Rivalry and Ethnic Insecurities Part IV High Intensity Conflicts Part V The Management and Resolution of Territorial Conflicts Part VI Poverty Economics and Conflict Management Part VII Advancing Conflict Resolution through Education and Part VIII Civil Society Governance and Social Consensus

Track Two Diplomacy in Theory and Practice Peter Jones, 2015-09-02 Jones provides a nuanced perspective on both the promise and limits of this unheralded form of unofficial diplomacy Stephen J Del Rosso Director International Peace and Security Carnegie Corporation of New York Track Two diplomacy consists of informal dialogues among actors such as academics religious leaders retired senior officials and NGO officials that can bring new ideas and new relationships to the official process of diplomacy Sadly those involved in official diplomacy often have little understanding of and appreciation for the complex and nuanced role that Track Two can play or for its limitations And many Track Two practitioners are often unaware of the realities and pressures of the policy and diplomatic worlds and not particularly adept at framing their efforts to make them accessible to hard pressed officials At the same time those interested in the academic study of Track Two sometimes fail to understand the realities faced by either set of practitioners A need therefore exists for a work to bridge the divides between these constituencies and between the different types of Track Two practice and this book crosses disciplines and traditions in order to do just that It explores the various dimensions and guises of Track Two the theory and practice of how they work and how both practitioners and academics could more profitably assess Track Two Overall it provides a comprehensive picture of the range of activities pursued under this title to provoke new thinking about how these activities relate to each other to official diplomacy and to academe This book will be a classic that defines the field of Track Two

Creativity and Conflict Resolution Tatsushi Arai, 2009-09-10 This book explores how creative ways of resolving social conflicts emerge evolve and subsequently come to be accepted or rejected in inter group relations Creativity and Conflict Resolution explores a subject with which political communities involved in social conflict have always grappled creative ways of imagining and actualizing visions of conflict resolution This is an ambitious question which concerns human communities at many different levels from families regional independence movements and national governments to inter state alliances The author argues that unconventional viability lies at the heart of creativity for transcending seemingly intractable inter communal conflicts More specifically conflict resolution creativity is a social and epistemological process whereby actors involved in a given social conflict learn to formulate an unconventional resolution option or procedure Demystifying the origin of unthinkable breakthroughs for conflict resolution and illuminating theories of creativity based on 17 international case studies this book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace and conflict studies human security and IR Tatsushi Arai is an Associate Professor of Peace and Conflict Transformation at the SIT Graduate Institute in Vermont USA He has a PhD in Conflict Resolution from George Mason University Washington DC and extensive practical experience in the field

Asian-European Relations Jurgen

Ruland, Gunter Schubert, Gunter Schucher, Cornelia Storz, 2008-02-29 Applying established theories to concrete phenomena Asian European Relations provides a comprehensive understanding of inter regionalism and how co operation between Asia and Europe should be fashioned in the new millennium It contributes to the most recent developments in research by providing impressively rich studies to test existing theoretical frameworks Indigenous Conflict Management Strategies in West Africa Joseph Kingsley Adjei, Jesse J. Benjamin, Brandon D. Lundy, 2014-11-19 Indigenous Conflict Management Strategies in West Africa Beyond Right and Wrong expands the discourse on indigenous knowledge With several examples and case histories the work defines characterizes and explains indigenous conflict management strategies in West Africa particularly in Ghana Nigeria and Cameroon The book critically evaluates indigenous conflict management strategies with a view to determining their effectiveness in the context of the societies history and culture and the relevance and adaptability of these strategies in contemporary contexts This book takes a scholarly approach avoiding romanticizing or idealizing indigenous conflict management strategies in West Africa It advocates a set of mechanisms by which the best elements of indigenous knowledge and skills in conflict management may be deployed to settle contemporary disputes and made portable for adoption and adaptation by other complex societies in the region and beyond
