Second Assault Rape And Public Attitudes:

The Second Assault Joyce E. Williams, Karen A. Holmes, 1981-12-23 The first in depth empirical study that goes beyond the initial trauma of rape and considers the interplay between society and the experience of rape the interaction between the victim and her own social world

Public Opinion and Criminal Justice Jane Wood, Theresa A. Gannon, 2013-05-13 Public opinion is vital to the functioning of the criminal justice system but it is not at all clear how best to establish what this is and what views people have on different aspects of criminal justice and the criminal justice system Politicians and the media often assume that the public wants harsher tougher and longer sentences and policies may be shaped accordingly Detailed research and more specific polling often tells a different story This book is concerned to shed further light on the nature of public views on criminal justice paying particular attention to public opinion towards specific types of offenders such as sex offenders and mentally disordered offenders In doing so it challenges many enduring assumptions regarding people's views on justice and confronts the myths that infect our understanding of what people think about the criminal justice system

Public Opinion, Crime, And Criminal Justice Julian Roberts, 2018-10-08 Taking on one of the most popular issues of the day crime and the way we make sense of it Julian Roberts and Loretta Stalans reveal the mismatch between the public perception of crime and the reality of crime statistics Discussing such issues as public knowledge of crime sources of crime information information processing by the public public attitudes about crime and the effectiveness of punishment this book considers the role that public opinion plays in the politics of criminal justice issues Based on extensive data from the United States with comparisons with Canada and the United Kingdom Roberts and Stalans reveal the truth behind how the public perceives crime and how this perception compares to actual criminal activity

Penal Populism and Public Opinion

Julian V. Roberts, 2003 The five countries examined are the United States the United Kingdom Canada Australia and New Zealand

Sexual Assault and the Justice Gap: A Question of Attitude Jennifer Temkin, Barbara Krahé, 2008-04-15 This book is set against the background of the justice gap in sexual assault cases the dramatic gap between the number of offences recorded by the police and the number of convictions It seeks to examine the attitudinal problems which bedevil this area of law and possible strategies for addressing them Written by a professor of law and a professor of psychology it reviews evidence from socio legal and social cognition research and presents new data drawn both from interviews with judges and barristers and from studies with prospective lawyers and members of the public In the final part it considers different ways in which rape trials could be improved and suggests steps that could be taken to change public attitudes about sexual assault

Life Crises and Experiences of Loss in Adulthood Leo Montada, Sigrun-Heide Filipp, Melvin J. Lerner, 2014-01-14 A result of a conference at the University of Trier Germany this volume mirrors its goals to provide an overview of recent advances in research on critical life events and the losses associated with them to collect and stimulate new perspectives for the analysis of these events to compare the psychology of victims experiencing stress and losses with the psychology of observers in their reactions to victims Designed to prevent developmental psychological myths in the area of life crises this collection questions on an empirical basis the adequacy of several widespread generalizations At the same time its contributors attempt to draw paths to conceptualizations and theories in general psychology and social psychology which promise to be helpful in analyzing and interpreting phenomena in the field of life crises Stress, Social Support, and Women Stevan E. Hobfoll, 1986 First Published in 1986 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Critical Psychology Praxis Robert Beshara, 2021-02-25 This collection of chapters advances critical psychology by incorporating praxis theory and practice and decolonial streams of thought They are united around a theme of psychosocial non alignment to modernity coloniality Bringing together a transdisciplinary range of authors from around the world this edited volume weaves together a spectrum of complex arguments and perspectives to lay the foundations for bridging the Global North South divide in critical psychology through solidarity and dialogue The book s central argument is to emphasize praxis and transdisciplinarity over disciplinary fundamentalism Psychology is only a starting point and not the end goal of critique in this book incidentally some of the authors are not even psychologists Instead the book draws on decolonial theoretical resources such as Chican Studies Black Male Studies and Critical Pedagogy to complement traditional theoretical resources like psychoanalysis Marxism poststructuralism and feminism This groundbreaking text is suitable for scholars and upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students studying critical discourse the psychology and philosophy of post coloniality conceptual and historical issues in psychology as well as anthropology and sociology courses engaging with action research The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Race and Gender Shirley Anne Tate, Encarnación Gutiérrez

Rodríguez, 2022-03-07 This handbook unravels the complexities of the global and local entanglements of race gender and intersectionality within racial capitalism in times of MeToo BlackLivesMatter the Chilean uprising Anti Muslim racism backlash against trans and queer politics and global struggles against modern colonial femicide and extractivism

Contributors chart intersectional and decolonial perspectives on race and gender research across North America Europe Latin America the Caribbean and South Africa centering theoretical understandings of how these categories are imbricated and how they operate and mean individually and together This book offers new ways to think about what is absent present and why how erasure works in historical and contemporary theoretical accounts of the complexity of lived experiences of race and gender and how as new issues arise intersectionalities re emerge in the politics of race and gender This handbook will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities Deconstructing Sexuality in the Middle East Pinar Ilkkaracan, 2016-05-13 Exploring the contemporary dynamics of sexuality in the Middle East this volume offers an in depth and unique insight into this much contested and debated issue It focuses on the role of sexuality in political and social struggles and the politicization of sexuality and gender in the region Contributors illustrate the complexity of discourses debates and issues focusing in particular on the situation in Iran Iraq Jordan Lebanon Pakistan Palestine and

Turkey and explain how they cannot be reduced to a single underlying factor such as religion or a simple binary opposition between the religious right and feminists Contributors include renowned academicians researchers psychologists historians human rights and women s rights advocates and political scientists from different countries and backgrounds offering a balanced and contemporary perspective on this important issue as well as highlighting the implication of these debates in larger socio political contexts
