Second French Empire:

Documents on the Second French Empire, 1852-1870 Roger Price, 2015-07-20 In December 1851 Louis Napoleon Bonaparte seized power in a coup d'état believing he was destined to rule France and restore her to her former glory. He was committed to the modernisation of France through significant infrastructure investment and urban renewal. Although he felt pressured to make concessions to liberal, clerical and republican opposition from 1860 he remained determined to retain substantial power over foreign and defence policy. This would prove to be his undoing. In 1870 the Empire created by a military coup ended with a catastrophic military defeat dramatically changing the balance of power in Europe. Documents on the Second French Empire presents students with a range of primary sources covering the political, social and economic history of the era. The documents in each chapter are contextualised by an introduction from the author and are grouped by theme making them easy to navigate and analyse. Court Life of the Second French Empire, 1852-1870 Ernest Alfred Vizetelly, 1908 Louis Napoleon and the Second Empire J. Based on original archival research, The Second French Republic gives a detailed account of the internal tensions that irrevocably weakened France's shortest republic. During this short period French political life was buffeted by strong and often contrary forces: universal manhood suffrage, fear of socialism, the President Louis Napoleon Bonaparte and the political ambitions of the military high command for the restoration of the monarchy. A Traditionalist History of the Great War, Book II Alexander Wolfheze,2021-01-27 This book analyzes the world of 1914 by combining the approaches of traditionalist hermeneutics and 20th century geopolitics The juxtaposition of these two frameworks incorporated in the principles of Sacred Geography and Sea Power allows for a Traditionalist perspective on the choices facing the Ten Great Powers on the eve of the Great War The book s multifaceted approach follows the iconoclastic culture critique method of the Traditional School that was developed by Ren Gu non Frithjof Schuon and Julius Evola it shows the pre war world as essentially different from the post war world Thus the Ten Great Power protagonists of the Great War may be understood on their own terms rather than through a backward projection of politically correct values on the existentially different human life world of 1914 Dislodging the historical materialist progress premise that underpins contemporary academic historiography this book reasserts the highest claim of the Art of History meta narrative meaning
