Secrets Of International Identity Change:

The Secret Israeli-Palestinian Negotiations in Oslo Sven Behrendt, 2007-03-06 The Oslo secret negotiations from 1992 to 1993 were some of the most astonishing and also successful negotiations in the Middle East leading to the mutual recognition between the PLO and Israel Through an in depth examination of the Oslo negotiations this book argues that at the core of the negotiations was a fascinating dilemma of recognition Overcoming this dilemma was at the centre of the secret negotiations A thorough analysis documents how decision makers tried to communicate without being able to engage in face to face negotiations and highlights the significance of the role of third parties in the conflict resolution process stressing in particular the importance of the European Union's power in bringing the sides together This is a comprehensive account of the Oslo negotiations focusing particularly on the timely issue of non recognition which is of great importance today given the recent emergence of the rise of Hamas as the dominant Palestinian political force The Secret Financial

Life of Food Kara Newman, 2013 An investigation into commodities trading this text looks at how market conditions can influence what we eat and drink Beginning in the marketplaces of ancient Rome Kara Newman traces the growing commodification of food across the ages to the present day and the enormously influential Chicago Merchantile Exchange

Mossad: The Secret History of Israel's Intelligence Agency (How the Israeli Secret Service Recruit and Train Its Officers) Frank Gaughan, 101-01-01 The Mossad is one of the most well known intelligence agencies in the world It has been involved in some of the most high profile covert operations in history from the capture of Nazi war criminal Adolf Eichmann to the assassination of Iranian nuclear scientists Despite its reputation as a secretive organization the Mossad has captured the imagination of people all over the world This book takes a comprehensive look at the Mossad from its origins in the early days of Israel's intelligence community to its current operations and challenges It explores the agency's successes and failures its methods and techniques and its role in shaping Israel's security policy The Mossad has always been shrouded in mystery and much of what it does is still unknown to the public But through extensive research and interviews with former Mossad agents this book provides a unique glimpse into the inner workings of one of the world's most powerful intelligence agencies Since its inception in 1949 the Mossad has been credited with incredible rescues violent assassinations and the clever sabotage of enemy operations Whether nefarious or essential both critics and supporters of Mossad recognize that its estimated 1 200 employees have the unique ability to adapt to uncertain and hostile circumstances accomplish large scale objectives with limited resources and persevere when seemingly hopelessly outnumbered Shame and Ageing in a

Transforming World Elisabeth Vanderheiden, Claude-Hélène Mayer, 2024-05-23 The book provides a comprehensive overview of research and concepts related to shame and ageing in the context of social change upheavals and paradigm shifts from transdisciplinary cultural and transcultural perspectives Drawing upon the editors previous works on the topic of shame this volume discusses the contexts of shame and ageing from theoretical conceptual and empirical perspectives The toxic and stressful aspects of shame have been the focus of scientific analysis and discourse on shame and ageing This volume explicitly makes the dimensions of shame a resource for individuals and collective transformation processes the object of research in the context of ageing It looks at emerging lifestyle political socio economic and health contexts It looks at how and why the frequency intensity and handling of feelings of shame change over the course of life the impact of shame on emotional well being and mental health of older people the impact of shame on social relationships and social engagement of older people in different cultures the role of cultural values and norms in the development and processing of feelings of shame especially in older people and how these can be used for self development and the differences in the way older people in different cultures deal with feelings of shame and the way these can be used to develop effective strategies and techniques for older people to cope with shame The editors and contributors thereby take cultural and gender aspects as well as positive psychology and resource orientated concepts such as salutogenesis resilience happiness fortitude locus of control faith or strengths based approaches into account and contextualize them against processes of social upheaval and transformation

Vincent Boucher, Charles-Philippe David, Karine Prémont, 2020-11-12 Since the advent of the contemporary US national security apparatus in 1947 entrepreneurial public officials have tried to reorient the course of the nation's foreign policy. Acting inside the National Security Council system some principals and high ranking officials have worked tirelessly to generate policy change and innovation on the issues they care about. These entrepreneurs attempt to set the foreign policy agenda, frame policy problems and solutions and orient the decision making process to convince the president and other decision makers to choose the course they advocate. In National Security Entrepreneurs and the Making of American Foreign Policy Vincent Boucher, Charles-Philippe David and Karine Prémont develop a new concept to study entrepreneurial behaviour among foreign policy advisers and offer the first comprehensive framework of analysis to answer this crucial question: why do some entrepreneurs succeed in guaranteeing the adoption of novel policies while others fail? They explore case studies of attempts to reorient US foreign policy waged by National Security Council entrepreneurs, examining the key factors enabling success and the main forces preventing the adoption of a preferred option: the entrepreneur's profile, presidential leadership, major players involved in the policy formulation and decision making processes, the national political context and the presence or absence of significant opportunities. By carefully analyzing significant diplomatic and military decisions of the Johnson, Nixon, Reagan and Clinton administrations and offering a preliminary account of contemporary national security entrepreneurship under presidents George W. Bush, Barack Obama and Donald Trump, this book makes the case for an agent-based explanation of foreign policy change and continuity.
